

SECRETARY BRYAN RESIGNS

Washington, June 8--Secretary of State Bryan late today submitted his resignation to President Wilson and it was accepted. Differences over the second note to Germany approved by a cabinet meeting which Bryan failed to attend led up to his action. There have been rumors of friction between the President and Bryan over a note to be sent to England protesting Great Britain's blockade. Secretary Bryan and President Wilson parted this afternoon on the best of terms.

GERMANS TORPEDO NORWEGIAN BOATS, MAKE LAND GAINS

London, June 8 (12:15 p. m.)--The Norwegian vessels Trudvang and Superb have been sunk by German submarines. Another Norwegian steamer sunk is the Giltfjord, of 374 tons net. This vessel was built in 1914 and was 185 feet long. The Trudvang was a steamer of 640 tons net register. She was built at Bergen in 1897. She was 224 feet long, 32 feet beam and 13 feet deep. The Superb was a bark of 1,399 tons and was built in Glasgow in 1875. She sailed from Buenos Ayres March 10 for Queens- town.

The Trudvang was hailed by a German submarine soon after midday yesterday when off St. Ann's Head. The captain was ordered to bring his papers aboard the submarine, whose commander gave the crew twenty minutes to take to the boats. The submarine then sent twelve shells into the Trudvang. The shooting brought on a patrol boat from Milford Haven which picked up the skipper and crew, numbering thirteen, from the boats. During the operation the submarine attempted vainly to torpedo the patrol boat. The sea from the Trudvang were landed today at Milford Haven.

London, June 8--The Belgian steamer Memster has been sent to the bottom by a German torpedo near the North Foreland. Out of 23 persons on board only six were saved. The captain, his wife and his daughter, the first mate and the pilot and twelve members of the crew lost their lives.

London, June 8--Virtually the entire western line of battle, except those portions occupied by the Belgians and the British, has been the scene of what would appear to be a series of offensive movements initiated by the French. In the region of Arras the French have extended the area of their attack while they are pressing all along the front from

DECLARES BLOCKADE

Washington, June 8--Ambassador Sharp at Paris reported today that the French government had announced that the blockade of the coast of Asia Minor, established by the British would be enforced also by French ships.

THUGS GET $8,500

New York, June 8--Another daylight holdup, this time by automobile bandits who robbed two men on their way in a buggy to deposit money in a bank took place in New York today. The two robbers got away with a satchel containing $8,500. The victims were George A. Lissard, cashier, and Thomas J. Boyd, superintendent of a branch office of Borden's Condensed Milk Co., who were driving through a sparsely settled district in the Bronx to deposit collections.

TYPHOID

London, June 8--9:31 a. m.--An epidemic of typhoid fever is raging among the troops and civilian population of Asia Minor, according to reports from Constantinople, says a Reuter dispatch from Athens. Seventy-five physicians have already succumbed to the disease. There is imminent danger that the Constantinople water works system will be compelled to suspend operations because of shortage of coal and output of flour mills has been restricted for the same reason, with the result that there is an insufficient supply of bread. The situation is said to be so serious that many German families are leaving the Turkish capital.

GIRL ATTEMPTS SUICIDE

Cleveland, June 8--Miss Joanna Winner, 23, refused an opportunity to training as a nurse, attempted suicide last night by leaping from a 75 foot cliff on the shore of the lake. She is dying with a fractured skull and other injuries.

OFFICIAL WAR DISPATCHES

TURKISH REPORT

Amsterdam, Holland, June 8. (Via London)--There has been received here from Constantinople a dispatch which transmits the following official Turkish report on the progress of hostilities at the Dardanelles:

"Our artillery has destroyed an enemy position near Avic Burnu, from which bombs were being dropped. The neighboring trenches also were destroyed. In the vicinity of Seddul Bahr the enemy in a condition of exhaustion has not shown any further activity since his latest unsuccessful attack."

"Our batteries on the Asiatic coast shelled the weary troops of the enemy in the neighborhood of Seddul Bahr yesterday. His artillery positions and ammunition transports also were shelled."

"Two of the enemy cruisers unsuccessfully shelled the village of Ajion, opposing the island of Mytilene. Subsequently the enemy sent a steamer filled with soldiers to this port and attempted to remove some boats at anchor there. Fire was opened on this steamer from the banks and the vessel ran ashore."

FRENCH REPORT

Paris, June 8--The French war office this afternoon gave out a statement on the progress of hostilities which reads:

"In the sector to the north of Arras there were yesterday evening and last night some infantry engagements. On the eastern slopes of the plateau of Lorette the enemy replied to an attack from us by three violent counter attacks. This activity did not result in any changes of position."

"To the northeast of the sugar refinery of Souchez we yesterday made further progress."

"At Neuville St. Vaast we gained possession as a result of very violent fighting of a further group of houses. In the region of 'The Labyrinth' a German counter attack has been repulsed."

"To the southeast of Hebuterne the Germans yesterday endeavored to recapture the positions they had lost. Four different times they were driven back. We increased our gain to the northeast by taking possession of two lines of German trenches along a front stretching for 500 yards or as far as the roadway running between Hebuterne and Serre."

ITALIAN REPORT

Rome, June 8 (via Paris)--Italian troops are proceeding methodically to take possession of the most important positions all along the frontier, according to a statement signed by General Cadorna, chief of the general staff, issued last night at general Italian headquarters. The statement follows:

"Our advanced troops proceeded to take possession of the most important positions beyond the frontier all along the line, meeting with some resistance. At the same time a contested artillery duel continued on the plateau of Lavagna."

"The same is the case along the Isanzo river from Caporetto to the sea where we are in close contact with the enemy. Strong advance formation protected by powerful artillery actually have reached this important line with the object of establishing themselves solidly at the most suitable passages and of installing their bridge heads commanding the banks, thereby insuring safe crossing."

TEXAS RANGER IS KILLED BY MEXICAN IN REVOLVER DUEL

Marathon, Texas, June 8--Lee Burdette, a Texas Ranger, was shot and killed near Pithena, Texas, last night in a pistol battle with three Mexicans, two of whom he seriously wounded. Both the wounded Mexicans are expected to die. The third was being pursued by a posse today. Burdette whose home was in Austin, was trying to arrest the men.

Washington, June 8--Advices to the state department today from Tampico reporting the capture of Tuxpam by Villa forces Sunday. One British citizen was killed and four were wounded during the fighting. S. P. Jones was killed, Thomas Mollard, Mrs. Mollard, their infant child and A. T. Graves were wounded while seeking cover.

Counsel Billings at Vera Cruz reported that Obregon's victory over the Villa forces at Leon appeared to be confirmed. It was reported that Gen. Obregon lost his right arm in the fight. The dispatch said Mollard had been badly wounded, that Mrs. Mollard and the Mollard infant had been shot through the stomach and that Graves shot through the spine. Officials here assumed (Continued On Page 6).

EIGHTY SALOONS IN MINNESOTA TO CLOSE

St. Paul, Minn., June 8--Eighty saloons in ten counties of Minnesota will be forced to discontinue operations as a result of yesterday's county option election. Two of the twelve counties voting, Blue Earth and Olmstead, will retain saloons. In Pipestone the drys won by 13 votes and in Redwood by 22. The other counties which abolished liquor are Travers, Todd, Renville, Dodge, Kandiyohi, Murray, Ottertail and Watonwan.

BURTON IS RECEIVED BY GOMEZ

Rio Janeiro, June 8--President Gomez yesterday received former United States Senator Burton, of Ohio, who is making a tour of South America for the purpose of strengthening commercial relations between the United States and the southern republics.

Edwin V. Morgan, United States ambassador to Brazil, also was present at the interview. There was a cordial discussion of the possibility of closer trade relations.

Ohio--Fair tonight and Wednesday. Warmer Wednesday.

ARRESTS WILL FOLLOW VETO OF THE DRUG ACT

Columbus, June 8--Detection and prosecution of violators of the narcotic drug law was resumed today by the bureau of drug inspection under W. R. Hower, following the veto by the governor last Saturday of the Platt bill. This measure would have transferred drug inspection work to the board of pharmacy and would have made two physicians in each county responsible for dispensing orders by which habitual drug users could buy it from druggists.

The state drug inspectors had partially suspended their work pending the legislative procedure on the Platt bill, not wishing to start prosecutions which might be invalidated by the new measure. Detectives now are working in a large Ohio city, where a number of physicians will be arrested and prosecuted soon under the Duffly law, it was said today. Although that law has been declared invalid by the appellate court of Lucas county the department will operate under it unless the law's constitutionality is contested elsewhere. A delegation of Columbus pharmacists called on Gov. Willis to urge that he reconsider his veto of the Platt bill. It was ex-

WILSON SAYS NOTE WILL BE DISPATCHED TOMORROW

Washington, June 8--After two hours' discussion of the note to Germany at the cabinet meeting today Secretary Tamm, at the direction of President Wilson, made this announcement:

"The note was gone over and discussed and put in final form. It probably will go forward to Berlin tomorrow. The cabinet members uniformly refused to discuss it."

The president explained that there had been no delay of any kind in the preparation of the note. He had brought only a rough draft of it to the cabinet meeting Friday and it has had all sorts of suggestions since. The general character of the document, however, he said had not been modified and he believed it had the approval of the entire cabinet. No one has held up the note, the president emphasized, work on it being as expeditious as possible with carelessness. The president today gave no inkling of its contents, believing that forecasts might set up a misconception abroad of the American position. The arrival of the note from Germany offering to pay for the attack on the Gulfport and asking for further information concerning the dropping of bombs on the Cushing was referred to by the president as not unsatisfactory. These two cases, however, do not affect the main principle for which the United States is contending, the sinking of unarmed ships.

The president said he had learned only through the newspapers of the mission of Van Ghel Goldemeester who arrived in the interest of neutral mediation in the European war. The president added, however, that he individual officials might have information concerning Goldemeester's trip here.

When the cabinet assembled to discuss the note Secretary Bryan was not among the number. He remained at his office at the state department closeted with Counselor Lansing and sent word to the president that he was detained by important work. Mr. Bryan, however, has conferred frequently with the president while the note has been under construction.

GREEK KING REPORTED BETTER AND WORSE

Rome, June 8. (Via Paris 2:15 p. m.)--The Messagero has received a news dispatch from Athens saying the condition of King Constantine of Greece has suddenly become very grave.

Washington, June 8--Improvement in the condition of King Constantine was reported to the Greek legation here today in a bulletin issued at Athens six o'clock last night. The king was reported again able to take liquid nourishment, the vomiting reported in yesterday morning's bulletins have ceased and the king has taken 700 grams of liquid. The temperature is only slightly above normal and it has not been necessary to re dress the wound the dispatch says.

Rogers and Test attended her injuries and succeeded in reducing the dislocation and Mrs. Jones is resting as easily as could be expected.

NEW BOSTON

Estimates prepared by Engineer Sam Harper for the installing of water mains in Peables between Rhodes and Stanton avenues and in Peables street to the addition of the grading of Rhodes, Rhodes underground crossing was $412.50. The estimate for the grading to establish a grade on Rhodes avenue through the Peables addition from West avenue to Bush street was $100. Each street will run north and south at the west corporation line.

Estimates for the installation of water mains from the south line of Gallia pike up Turkey Hollow through the proposed new addition to be platted by L. D. York was $1739.49. Solicitor Skelton was instructed to bring in appropriating ordinances for the three amounts at the next regular meeting, June 21. A blue print of L. D. York's Glenwood addition was presented by Attorney Harry W. Miller to Engineer Harper for council's approval. The blue print did not show how the water from the hills on each side was to be taken care of to keep it from cutting through the lots, and the matter was referred to Engineer Harper, who will confer with Mr. York and present a new plat of the addition next meeting night. The one street in the addition is to be known as Glenwood avenue. At the same time the plat is accepted by council the street will be dedicated to the village.

Engineer Harper reported Oak street, Harrisonville avenue and Gallia pike from the lake to Harrisonville avenue as being ready for paving. Sewers will have to be laid on the other streets before paving can be started. Bids for the paving of ten streets will be opened Wednesday, June 16.

Council adjourned to meet in called session Thursday, June 17, when contracts for the paving will be let.

A young son of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Pitch of Gallia pike, had his foot badly cut several days ago when he stepped on a piece of glass.

Mrs. Tatum Here To Boost Chautauqua Children's Work; Form Club This Afternoon

Interest in the coming Chautauqua was stimulated by the arrival Monday evening of Mrs. Grace Cowan Tatum, general supervisor of children's work for the Redpath Chautauqua. She spent Tuesday morning visiting among the local promoters of the Chautauqua, expressing their interest in the children's features of Chautauqua week.

At the First Baptist church this afternoon, a Junior Chautauqua Club was organized among the children of the city, a large number going to the church after school was over. Before the meeting adjourns officers will be elected and the permanent organization formed.

Mrs. Tatum, who is experienced along the lines of children's work, entertained the little ones with new games, folk songs, stories and other entertaining features. She was assisted by Mrs. C. W. Rowe of this city, to whom has been assigned the children's department of the Chautauqua.

It was announced that prizes will be offered for the children of the Chautauqua club writing the best stories. There will be first, second and third prizes. The stories are to be about the Chautauqua, girls and boys and not over 700 words in length. These stories are to be handed to Mrs. C. E. Rowe five days before the Chautauqua and the prizes will be awarded the first day of the Chautauqua. Mrs. Rowe was elected advisory president of the club.

The club will also participate in a contest for the Champion Junior Redpath Club 1915 Chautauqua banner. This banner goes to the city in this circuit, comprising 56 cities, having the biggest attendance at the morning and afternoon meetings of the Junior clubs. The purchase of a child's ticket will be the admission to the club. The club yell will be: Who are we? Who are we? Hippa, Hippa, Yi, Yi, J. R. C.

The club colors will be red and white the colors of the banner and the buttons.

Mrs. Tatum said the ideal of the Junior Club was the same as the Chautauqua, educational and ethical uplift for the individual and the community.

"The child is the future citizen and any effort for his profit results in an added asset for the community."

York park has been definitely decided upon as the place for holding the week's entertainment, permission having been received from the city authorities.

WESLEY HALL TO RESCUE

Mrs. Sarah McCoy, the Williamson, W. Va., young woman, who is stranded in the city with her two little children, failed to get them entered at the Day Nursery because the boy who is about three years old has eczema. She refuses to go to the infirmary and Rev. J. E. Dibert of the Wesley Mission Hall has interested himself in her behalf hoping to find a place for her. She claims her husband deserted her.

NO FLAG DAY PARADE

Superintendent Frank Appel of the Portsmouth public schools announced Tuesday that the school children would not observe Flag Day with a big parade this year.

HOUSE IS BURNED

While James Starcher, a prominent farmer of the Salt Creek neighborhood, three miles east of Wakefield, Pike county, was away from home last Saturday morning, his house caught fire in some manner and was completely destroyed. One of his children was badly burned.

Burned To Death

Waverly, Ohio, June 8.—Nicholas Buell, aged 70, was burned to death in a fire which destroyed his home at Happy Hollow near here yesterday. He was alone in the house when the fire broke out.

CARD OF THANKS

I desire to express my sincere and heartfelt thanks to my friends, relatives and neighbors for the kindness shown me during the short illness and death of my wife, Flora Harr, who died May 27, 1915. I also wish to thank the minister and the undertaker for their kind deeds and comforting words and also the donors of the beautiful floral offerings.

WITNESS IS ILL

Mary Large, one of the Ashland, Ky., girls being held in the county jail as an important witness against Edward Ode, charged with burglary and larceny, was stricken with appendicitis at the county jail Monday, and is now under the care of Dr. W. W. Smith, the health officer. An operation may be necessary to improve her condition, although she strenuously objects.

YOUNG GIRL IS BEING HELD

Several young men of this city, some of them married, will be brought into juvenile court within the next twenty-four hours to tell what they know about Alice McGill, a fourteen year old North End girl arrested this afternoon by Officer Callahan Smith on a delinquency charge and turned over to juvenile court. It is claimed that she has been taken on several motorcycle trips with men, and has otherwise been deporting herself improperly. Pending an investigation, she is being held in the juvenile ward of the county jail.

The girl is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McGill, and resides with her parents in an alley back of the Bender bakery.

ARMY OFFICER HERE

Visited Parents.
W. H. Wilson, of the Western Southern Insurance office at Iron-ton, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Wilson of Seventh street.

OBITUARY

Miss Lucy Knowles
Miss Lucy Knowles, one of the city's most highly esteemed residents, a woman who was widely endeared for her many lovable traits of character, passed peacefully away Monday afternoon at the family residence, 1015 Second street. She had been ill with complications since last September, but her condition did not become serious until a short time ago.

Miss Knowles was a daughter of the late William and Mary Knowles, who passed away about two years ago. She is survived by two sisters, the Misses Sallie and Laura Knowles and four brothers, P. W. and J. K. of the Whitaker-Glessner Co. and Attorney Robt. B. Knowles and Dr. Ralph Knowles of New York, who are on their way to Portsmouth to attend the last sad rites of their sister.

Miss Knowles was a life long member of the First Presbyterian church and was a most estimable woman. She had the happy faculty of bringing sunshine to the hearts of those around her and was always kind and sympathetic. She has passed away, but the deeds of kindness she so graciously performed will linger long in the memories of those who knew her best and loved her most.

Miss Knowles for years taught the young men's Sunday school class of the First Presbyterian church and much of her life was given to various forms of church work. She was the happiest when working for her church, which she loved so dearly.

The funeral services will be conducted from the home Thursday morning at 10 o'clock, the Rev. J. W. Dunning officiating. Friends are invited to the services, but the burial rites in Greenlawn will be private.

Jacob Schneider
Jacob Schneider, aged 81 years, died at his home on Dick Run, Monday night of stomach trouble. He leaves a wife, one daughter, Mrs. Robert Schneider, and a son Charles Schneider, of Columbus. Burial will be Wednesday.

COMPLAINTS

Officer Theo. Brauhm was detailed Monday to put a stop to boys batting base balls into Charles F. Pink's yard at No. 1305 Center street, and also chasing their rabbits about his premises.

No Trace Of Missing Man

Robert Stern returned Tuesday from Cincinnati where he was unable to find any trace of his missing brother, Theo. Stern, who disappeared from the former's home in this city last Saturday morning. He is still investigating other clues.

SOCIETY

Mrs. W. H. Kerr, of Des Moines, Iowa, and Charles May and Frank Bihm of this city, left Tuesday for Zanesville, O., to visit their sister, Mrs. Harry Vigna whom they have not seen in twenty years. Mrs. Kerr will be joined here in two weeks by her husband.

Squire and Mrs. John W. Byron, who were married at Stockdale, Pike county, last Sunday, are enjoying a honeymoon trip to Cleveland and other lake points. The jovial squire and his bride, who was Miss Marie Gordon, of Stockdale, came to Portsmouth Sunday evening and spent the night at the Byron home on Thimmons avenue. They took an early train Monday morning for Cleveland.

Miss Dollie Honeyer of 833 Seventh street entertained a small number of friends Monday evening with an A. T. B. Kensington.

Teachers Hired

All of this year's teachers with the exception of Prof. W. E. Simms, of the high school faculty, were employed by the Waverly board of education at a meeting Monday evening. Owing to shortage of funds on one was employed in his place, but Mary Gehres was selected as supervisor of music. All the grade teachers suffered a cut in salary of $2.50 a month.

Lay Down Tools

The carpenters employed on the new addition to Stanton avenue school laid down their tools Monday when several apprentice plumbers started work on the "roughing in" work.

ROCKY FORK

Mr. Otis Powell is very ill. Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Lucius, of Brown county, were visiting their daughter, Mrs. Jim Gregory, of this place, from Sunday till Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jackson and little son and daughter, of Portsmouth, are spending a few days here with relatives.

Mr. Oscar Elmore and daughter, Nannie, of this place, were Blue Creek visitors Saturday.

Quite a number of young folks from this place expect to attend meeting at Mt. Unger this week.

Mrs. Alonzo King, of near Berea Chapel, is sick.

Robert Smith was calling on his best friend Saturday evening.

Misses Marylou and Grace Brown and brother, Otis, of Mount Unger, attended Sunday school here at this place Sunday.

Mr. Oakley Newman, of Big Run, was calling on Mr. Milton Chapman, of Pine Hollow, Monday evening. What's the attraction, Oakley?

Miss Ada Chapman, of near Portsmouth, has been spending a few days here with her brother, Milton Chapman.

Miss Ida Martin, of Barlen, was calling on her cousin, Miss Nannie Elmore, a few days last week.

Miss Pearl Pierce, of Big Run, was the pleasant guest of her sister, Mrs. Grant Brown, of Mt. Unger, Monday.

Will Consider The Sewerage System

W. H. Dittoe, chief engineer of the state board of health, arrived night and spent all day Tuesday going over the matter of a proposed new hilltop sewerage system.

Mr. Dittoe was shown about the city by City Engineer George S. Wilhelm and also visited New

Piketon To Have A Wet-Dry Fight

Wet sympathizers of Piketon filed a petition containing 79 signatures with the village council Monday evening, calling for a local option election. The council fixed June 28th as the date for holding the election, and a hot contest is looked for.

Piketon is dry territory, having voted dry before Pike county as a whole voted dry seven years ago. Seal township, however, in which the village is located, is wet territory outside of the village, and the wet people prefer to have a school in the corporation limits rather than on the outskirts.

The petition was circulated by Charles "Scout" Vulgamore, prominent farmer of the village, who formerly conducted a saloon there. It is understood that he will make application for a license if the town votes wet. Waverly and Beaver are the only wet places in Pike county at present.

In Now Home
Mr. and Mrs. Philip Harry Brown and family moved Monday from 1225 Second street to the Baker home at 1123 Second street, recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. James Adams.

Infirmary is All O. K.

The county commissioners were in monthly session Tuesday as members of the board of county infirmary directors, approving bills and accounts against the institution. They inspected the infirmary Tuesday morning and enjoyed one of those good dinners for which Mrs. John Addis, the matron, is famous. Everything was found in commendable condition, according to the board. The clerk, T. C. Patterson, also accompanied them to the institution.

Exhibit At Waverly

A Health Exhibit, under the supervision of the State Board of Health, was placed on display in the Art Hall of the Waverly Fair Grounds, Monday. It will continue four days. Illustrated lectures on the care of children are given each evening.

WE ARE UNITED.

Wonderful country this. On the same days the veterans of the stars and stripes were celebrating their Memorial Day the veterans of the stars and bars were assembling at Richmond, the old capital of the Confederacy, in annual reunion, and peacefully, pleasantly, the country went on its way. Nor does that mark the re-uniting of the sections. The United States Marine Band lead the veterans' procession at Richmond and amid tremendous enthusiasm the official session passed resolutions commending President Wilson for his firm stand for neutrality and his evident purpose to protect the rights of this nation and the lives of its citizens. Especially did it approve him for his efforts to preserve peace with honor and assured him "the old boys in gray" would be ready to march again at his call.

BOTH PLEASURE AND REGRET.

The Huntington Herald-Dispatch seems to be that proud that The Times should commend its county of Cabell in voting a big bond issue to build more good roads.

Good roads are the best requirement for which a county can spend its resources. The Times thinks Cabell is particularly wise in laying a bonded debt upon itself to this end because it can be certain that in all human probability it will get what it pays for—good roads and full worth for its money. She is not entering upon an experiment with an expectation, she is but carrying out a policy on which she has already handsomely realized. She had the good judgment to enter some years ago upon the construction of vitrified brick roads and she already has over forty miles that are as fine as can be found anywhere on earth. For unlike Scioto county when she voted a tax for brick roads she went squarely to building them instead of frittering the money away in the back townships and most of the brick out of which the roads are built was made right here at Portsmouth. We do not exactly envy her what she has and is achieving, we are just regretful that having equal resources and being in a position to build more permanent roads than she, Scioto county has built only a mileage that is contemptible by comparison with all the conditions.

THE CHILD ITSELF.

A child, the other day, asked its father what was the nicest thing in the world. His father, deeply puzzled, played for time and put the question in a newspaper, in order that he might get the best answer. Now philosopher and fool are offering their suggestions for reply.

Many and varied as individuals themselves are these, but strange that none offer that which is most obvious, the child itself; a child untainted and unseared by sin and sorrow, a child in whose face there is the undimmed glow of innocence and purity, in whose laugh there is no refrain of disappointment and hope unfulfilled, in whose heart there is the untainted love that instinctively knows those who love it and will do it no harm.

And it is an unfortunate child that has a father lacking in the wit to say this to him.

AN APPRECIATION OF SUNDAY.

Yesterday was the bloom of youth. The air was as tranquil as the fragrance of a rose and the blue skies as gentle as the smile of a girl. Old Probs had taken on new resolutions and summoned all the forces of joy to guard the day. There is a touch of religion in such a lovely day, for the churches were crowded and the sermons were full of the sweetness of the year. There is a moral influence in a beautiful day. It makes a person suave and mild, and he talks to his neighbor in tones as soft as a robin's song. If we could have such days as yesterday none of us would be wicked. Every flower would preach a sermon, every bird would sing an anthem and through the branches of the trees the spirit of the living God would make moving pictures on the blue sky. All one has to do is to open up his heart and feel it all. Old Probs ought to be ashamed of himself if he does not continue the charm today and tomorrow.—From Monday's Ohio State Journal.

A man who walked over Dan Egbert's temporary roadway around the Chillicothe pike pines says that he thinks it was built to give work to unemployed air ships instead of unemployed horses as we suggested. He is willing to submit to arbitration as between his think and ours.

HIS EXCELLENCY THE C. P. OF OHIO.

DEATH PENALTY FOR THIS EDITOR.

(Enderlin, N. D. Independent.)

Born—on April 24, to Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Skramstad, residing near Nome, a fine baby boy. When this muller is brought to their attention in the right light they will willingly stop the practice.

Up at Ashland, Ky., Editor Ben Forgey of the Independent, has evidently been connecting up with a government mint. He announces that he is going to give away a five passenger automobile, pianos, victrolas, diamonds, sewing machines, watches, bicycles, and other prizes to those who assist him in getting One Thousand and new subscribers. Knowing the abstemious and rectitudinous habits of Brother Forgey we make haste to assure worldly inclined persons that it would do them no good to tote a new subscriber into Ben's sanctum and claim a drink of the stuff that cheers but inebriates as one of the "other prizes."

Having retired to the rear ranks of the high privates, we find time for pure and unalloyed enjoyment of these beautiful June days and our thoughts are not disturbed by little things like worries about whether or not this or that man will respond to the insistent call of the people and allow his honored name to decorate the party ticket at the coming city election. And, following the custom of the past, we suppose we will be entitled to roar with the rest of the high privates at the iniquitous party bosses for doing their best to put a presentable ticket in the field.

We note that while Governor Willis vetoed an item for $5,000 for certain repairs at the Gallipolis institution for epileptics, he thoughtfully signed the appropriation of $1,500 for his dear friend, Charlie Galbraith for extra work as clerk of the late constitutional convention. This little gratuity had been denied Charlie by the preceding legislature after careful investigation. But then why should the wards of the state be considered when a friend and admirer like Galbraith is to be considered?

There is nothing like being popular. We have heard of two slates of prospective office holders planned by two candidates for the Republican nomination for mayor and each one of them is headed by Roy McElhenny for service director. Now if Mae would only get on the slates of the other two candidates he might consider himself fairly well fortified to qualify as a member in the lead pipe cinch brigade, in the event of Republican success.

There has been a general perking up and wearing of the "I am the Man" smile among the bandit chieftains south of the Rio Grande ever since President Wilson sent the message for them to agree upon one of their number as the savior of Mexico. Each of these fellows seems to be immensely popular with himself whenever the presidency is mentioned.

Another indication that the tension in our foreign relations is lessening is found in the fact that Col. Roosevelt has taken a few days off to enjoy a hunt in the state game preserves of Louisiana. Of course if there was any real danger our perpetual and persistent national adviser upon all things under the sun, inside the sun, and over it too, would be on the job.

The sapient counsellors of the nation are still pointing a moral over the case of the Terre Haute mayor. That is all right, but the licentious official becomes altogether black because he was legally found out. Our horror of evil is rooted rather on conviction for it, than aversion to commission of it.

Huntington Jitney buses must take out a city license and put up a surety bond for $5,000 for liability in case of accidents before they can operate in the corporate limits. There have been so many accidents in and about Huntington traceable to the Jitneys that drastic action had to be taken.

One of the things our able young newsboys cannot understand is why the good Lord allows the weather man to fool and bluff around all afternoon and then send rain down in torrents just at press time.

Bulletin: The strawberry army has about reached the climax of its successful campaign. It is expected to remain stationary for a few days, then conduct a masterly retreat to its own country to prepare for a fresh campaign next year.

A Washington authority says sparrows can be killed with Roman candles. Making July Fourth sparrow day is one way we might have an old time Fourth.—Youngstown Telegram.

Wonder who Mr. Taft had in mind when he said we would be at war now if Mr. Wilson's place in the White House were filled by a jingo?—Philadelphia Record.

There always appears to be more Russians bobbing up to be captured. They must hear in some way of what an excellent commissary the Teutons maintain.

One of the things we cannot understand is why it is that it is considered necessary to take all summer and most of the fall to complete a little jug of paving along a country road when the same amount is usually done in half the time inside the city limits.

Writing in the Ashland Independent, Miss Inn Moore says there are more than a million kinds of insects. Howdy know, Inn, howdy know?

We suppose it is getting so over in England that life would be dull and empty if it were not for a daily Zeppelin raid.

Sketches of Life OLD NEW YORK

New York, June 8.—The Tango parasites, those sleek, oily, tongued young devils of the trotteries, are giving the Wide White Alley the go-by just now. They have taken their wrist watches, their pommade and suede tops to quiet little hotels on the Jersey coast until the storm blows over.

All sorts of committees are investigating Broadway and why girls go wrong. The same hysteria that follows every public expose is rampant and until the probers tire themselves out the tango halls will be minus the night loafers who live off of women.

The tango halls have for a year been a boon to the dress suit gangsters. Driven off the East Side by the Rosenthal murder investigations they have swarmed into the uptown section of Broadway. They are suave, gentlemanly and diplomatic. They know how to involve wealthy girls and married women into hopeless traps—and then profit by the blackmail.

The "Mr. O'Reilly" song has been cleared up. It seems that the song being sung in the trenches by the allied soldiers under the title "Are You the O'Reilly?" is none other than the melody of the old "Mr. Riley" song that Pat Roney popularized years ago, but the soldiers have put a new lyric to it.

A New York music publisher, with a gift for picking up winners, saw at once the melody was infectious and likely to have the same sweep as Tipperary. He secured the American rights and immediately put it on sale. Those who recall Pat Roney always identify him with his "Mr. Riley" song.

At Amsterdam Avenue and 162nd street you may buy, if you are that kind of a person, "Suggestive Gifts for June Brides."

An enterprising vaudeville

manager tried to get Charles Chaplin to leave California for ten days to appear in New York. He was to get $25,000 and expenses so the story goes—and press agents will make it a dollar or so too much now and then.

At any rate the funny film star wouldn't make the jump and it is said that after he had turned the offer down the company that hires him gave him a check for $25,000.

The story may be true because he would pack any vaudeville house twice daily for ten days. The musical shows are stealing his stuff now. There are Charlie Chaplin choruses with Charlie Chaplin walks until the tired business man—the poor old dear—is surfeited.

Here's a bright, snappy lesson in modern architecture from a headline in the Herald. It reads: "Newark to be Hub of Gateway to America." By the way, one wonders if salesmen who sell hubs for gates were affected by the war.

The "By The Sea" resorts are opening up just now. There are the Castles by the Sea, the Clavidge by the Sea, the Henly by the Sea and innumerable others. They are considered quite staid by the crowds who breakfast at four o'clock in the afternoon and have nothing to do but lap up cocktails and maxixe their way through life.

A man went into a restaurant on upper Broadway the other day, ordered chicken and refused to eat it on the plea that it was unfit. The proprietor called a cop who took the diner to the nearest station. The judge dismissed the case and a few more independent diners would take the same stand New Yorkers and its visitors would have more palatable food.

For some inexplicable reason it infuriates restaurant men to have food sent back. The more timid diners will allow them to get away with anything they serve rather than have a scene, but now and then a lion hearted citizen makes it easier for others by asserting himself.

Marker Is Moved

The city has called Civil Engineer W. H. Jenkins' attention to the geologic marker located at Ninth and Court streets having been removed and reset by a property owner there a few days ago and that this removal has likely entirely changed the accuracy of this station and should be noted before instruments are set by this stone.

The Markets

NEW YORK STOCKS
New York, June 8.—Bethlehem Steel's ascent to a new record was the feature of today's early market. Stock opened at 158, a three point advance and within a point of its previous best. From that figure it advanced in lots of 100 shares to 162. Other war specialties were fairly strong, advancing a point or more and copper scored similar gains. In the railway list Canadian Pacific, yesterday's weak feature, rose 1/2, this, however, being but a small part of its recovery in London. United States Steel and other leaders were up from fractions to a point.
Bethlehem Steel soon lost four of its seven point advance and the balance of the market reacted 1 to almost 2 points. As a matter of fact, trading was altogether professional and that element made the most of every opportunity to seize profits. Coppers, especially American smelting, stood out by reason of the refined metal to 13 1/2 cents. Variable tendencies were manifested for the balance of the early session, with a marked diminution of offerings.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS
Chicago, June 8.—Although wheat prices here suffered a sharp break today on account of a sensational decline at Liverpool, the Chicago market nevertheless was relatively steady as compared with British markets. Leading houses here were good buyers and their reports come of an excellent seaboard demand for cash wheat. Donals of progress against the Turks at the Dardanelles tended to bring about rallies. After opening 2 1/2 to 4 1/2 down, prices here recovered to about 2c above the lowest level at the start.
Corn seemed to be governed by the action of wheat. Cash houses showed activity on the buying side. Opening prices which varied from 1 1/2 to 1 3/4 lower were followed by an upturn of as much as a cent above the initial low price.
Oats swayed with other grain. Prominent concerns were aggressive in snapping up any sacrifice offers.
Provisions sympathized but little with the decline in cereals. On all soft spots shorts were disposed to cover.
A decided further rally in wheat ensued, but afterward selling increased owing to an assumption that the government crop report would prove to be much in favor of the bears. The close was unsettled at 1 1/2 to 2 1/2 down compared with Saturday night.
Moderate additional gains were scored in corn but they failed to last when wheat turned down grade near the end of the session. The close was steady at 3/4 and 1/2 to 1 1/4 to 1 3/4 net decline.

G. A. Flagg, of Dry Run, has just received another letter from his son, Captain Alston Flagg, of the British army. Since early in May he was ordered back to England, then received orders to proceed to Egypt and the Dardanelles but these were later countermanded and he is again fighting in the trenches in northern France.

TIMES CARRIER GRADUATES FROM HOPKINS GRAMMAR SCHOOL

Mrs. A. Oletha Lloyd and son, T. Morse Lloyd, have arrived in the city to spend part of the summer. They are guests of Mrs. Bertha Lile of Second street. Mrs. Lloyd and son have been living in New Haven, Conn. Morse Lloyd, who was formerly a Times carrier, graduated from the Hopkins' Grammar School several days ago. He was a member of the Portsmouth high school class of 1914. Young Lloyd will take an examination in Cincinnati the latter part of June and if successful he can enter Yale or any of the other big colleges. He was the only one at Hopkins School from the "Far West" as this part of the country is called in New Haven.

On their way to the Peerless City they viewed Niagara Falls. Morse was anxious to get here in time to attend P. H. S. commencement Thursday evening.

ON THE BENCH WITH JUDGE McHUGH
BY JAMES EDMUND DUFFY

SEE be th' avian' n' aper that th' Police Commissioner is ap- pletion n' more Ger- mane on th' force," said little Judge Dan McHugh.

"He shud have done that long ago," said the court attendant.

"Oh, I don't know about that," said the Judge. "I've been dead 'wid th' polis this morn' a year, an' we've had some illustrious men frim among that class in th' polis. There was Lordin' Schwartz, who went in with Zimmerman, was bossin' th' polis. Schwartz was a man who had as much 'learnin' in his square head as y'd find in any twine Coney Island. He was a jostling officer who he wint'ered, but he did love to play checkers in th' back room in Cassidy's place."

"I can see him now, although he's dead this twelve year or more, altho' he'd be a schupier if he'd never had th' before him, an' his blinikin' an' bilt dancin' playfully over th' back in his chair. I'll say this for Germany, that it produced man great checker player in Pollieman Schwartz. He knew th' polis business goid an' com- p'ly, but mostly common. Fr' whin he died he left a row in th' thimins, an' he never got more than sixty-five dollars a month."

"What's like politics, Jawn, makes strange bedfellows, an' th' polis says. I shud have been surprised to pick up th' pa-per any mornin' to find that Fritz Van Thrippe, an' th' corner hegan, had robbed some neighbor's horse in his halter. 'Judge,' he says to me today, 'I've lost all me customers but him that buy frim me on tick,' he says. 'I've had th' same frim on 'top since Choochies,' he says, 'an' it's not half empty,' he says, an' I felt sorry fr' him, an' wint in an' bought myself a shell he beer."

"But after drinkin' that beer I wint'ed a bit surprised that he do be losin' his thurde. His blinikin' an' I never drank such stuff in me life. It had been in th' polis so long it was viny- gar. While I told Cassidy about it he said it was treason to thurde wid a German man, an' I've bin worrin' since I've seen some frim that Oregon game saw me. If I was Van Thrippe I'd sell out cheap, an' go down an' achar a new place in South Ameriky or some other feidin' country."

"It's too bad that th' Imperor has brought all this on th' man Van Thrippe. He has no love fr' Germany. Divine a bit. He has more ragard fr' a tin can peace in Ameriky money than all th' Imperor that Germany ever had. Ev' dinst, th' part fr' Germany he came frim wasn't a very shurkin on patriotism. Yes, th' poor man, I feel sorry fr' him. Wurra, wurra, he has me sympathy, but why was he no careless when choosin' his nationality?"

"Vind y' beor think this time last year that we'd be blidin' every German we seed over th' head? Every time I say a wurra agin a German I'm sorry, fr' miny fr' thim have been me friends since I thirist was a candylade fr' th' high office I now hold. Gawd bly th' allytancees business. I'm afraid it'll fall into th' hands fr' th' Pysathians, an' we'll have a war do have the sting an' th' odor, Jawn."

"I thought sooner or later that we'd all be in th' ring. Th' Imperor William was a grum matchmaker fr' a crooked boxin' club. Th' divle took him! Here he has us all fightin'. William Bryan is chavin' th' divle in peace around th' house wid a club. Th' German Ambassador is robin' on th' flure wid divin or ate col- tern. Th' steamboat mimes are out on strike. Reilly's drunk again. Finagoo gave th' ol' woman another black eye. Th' Undertakers' Union has raised th' price fr' funerals, an' Joyce's wife has twins agin. My, oh my, think fr' what Imperor William must answer fr'."

"Are they're no peaceful min left in th' wurld?" said the court attendant.

"Yis, thank Hivill Thill Roosevelt an' William Barnes are that happy to gether that th' polis won't let thim out fr' sight," said the Judge.

SAYS GERMANY WILL EXTEND BEYOND BORDER

Amsterdam, (Via London) June 8.—Extension of the German empire beyond the old frontiers to secure it against future attacks, was predicted by King Ludwig, of Bavaria, yesterday, before the Canal League, according to a telegram from Munich. His Majesty said in his address:

"When the English declared war I said: 'I am glad because now we can settle accounts with our enemies; now, at least, we may hope to get more favorable communication with the sea and South Germany.'"

"Ten months have elapsed and much precious blood has been shed, but it will not have been in vain. The fruits of the war will be the strengthening of the empire with extension beyond the old frontiers as far as is necessary to secure it from future attack."

"He who marches with us—I mean Austria-Hungary and Turkey—will rejoice, but not so with the false friends who shammed friendship and behind our backs were over to the enemy. We are unconquered and the latest enemy, who has been talking so much about himself, has not dared a serious attack, although he took plenty of time for preparation."

"I've Five Bullets, Four For The Germans And One For Myself;" He Used Them

Paris, June 8.—The fate of Alberic Magnard, the composer of "Berenice" and "Yolande," missing since the battle of the Marne has just become known. He was at his country home near the village of Baron in the Oise, working on a new opera when the Germans invaded the department.

"There are five bullets there," he had said to a friend a few days before the arrival of the enemy, showing an automatic pistol. "Four for the Germans if they break into my premises—the fifth for myself."

The morning when the Uhlans were in the vicinity Magnard barricaded the gates to the park and the entrances to his house, where he had retired alone with his son-in-law, Monsieur Creton. A detachment of 30 Uhlans came soon after, demolishing the gates, invaded the grounds and began to force the doors. Magnard rushed to a window and fired two shots. Two Uhlans fell and the rest fled.

Later the detachment of Uhlans returned to the park, and fearing that the occupants of the house were well armed, decided to burn the composer out.

Doors, gates, blinds, branches of trees were piled in the entry, sprinkled with oil and fired.

Immediately two more shots came through the blinds and two more Uhlans fell. Then the blind was thrown open, the composer appeared in the open window, crying in a ringing voice: "Vive la France." Then he deliberately put the pistol to his temple and killed himself.

CINCINNATI BEGINS WAR ON POOLS

Cincinnati, June 8.—A case against baseball pools was started by the Cincinnati police department here today when Chief of Police Copelan notified the "gambling squad" of the department to round up all those who could be connected with the operation of baseball pools.

ELOPERS HALTED

Toledo, June 8.—Harry Leonard, 23, and Miss Hilda Fry, a 17-year-old school girl, both of this city, who eloped to Cleveland last Friday were prevented from obtaining a marriage license in that city by detectives Monday morning. Miss Fry was brought back to her home last evening by her father.

MOVE BUSINESS SIGNS

London, June 8.—The sign "Business As Usual" which appeared all over London at the beginning of the war has now vanished. It was deemed a patriotic manifestation of British pluck when hostilities began, but now it is seen to conflict with the popular state mind.

PROTECTS CITIZENS

Amsterdam, June 8.—In view of the rise in the cost of living in Germany, the German government has fixed the minimum sum for existence—which may not be mortgaged and against which no lawsuit or claim is allowed—at $500, instead of $375 as heretofore.

COCHRAN IS APPOINTED

Cincinnati, June 8.—Attorney William C. Cochran was appointed clerk of the United States circuit court of appeals of the sixth judicial district today. He succeeds Frank O. Loveland, who ended his life several months ago because of illness. Cochran is a well known Cincinnati attorney. He has been practicing law since 1872. The announcement of his appointment was made by United States Judge Warrington at the opening of the June session of the court.

DROPS PRESIDENT

Helena, Mont., June 8.—By a vote of 7 to 4, the state board of education refused to renew the contract of Dr. E. B. Craighead as president of Montana State University it was announced. This action was taken after Dr. Craighead had been called before the board to answer charges that he had threatened members of the faculty with dismissal unless they wrote letters to the board endorsing his work.

MORE FURNACES START

Pittsburgh, Pa., June 8.—For the first time in eight years, all four furnaces of a group which supplies the National Tube Works with raw material in McKeesport, were in operation today. The last of the group was "blowing in" yesterday and many employees who have been idle for months returned to work.

LIQUOR DEALERS MEET

Cincinnati, June 8.—With delegates from every state in the union in attendance, the National Wholesale Liquor Dealers' Association opened its annual convention here today. President Samuel Wholmer of Peoria, Illinois, submitted his annual report and Congressman Jacob E. Barker of Missouri also addressed the convention.

FAVORS GALLERIES

Dublin, June 8.—It is announced that the bulk of the estate of Sir Hugh Lane, the wealthy Irish art expert who was lost on the Lusitania, is bequeathed to galleries in Dublin and London. The principal items in the estate are the collections of paintings.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS CAPTURE ZANESVILLE

Zanesville, O., June 8.—The key of the city of Zanesville was today turned over to the Knights of Pythias by Mayor Webster at the opening of the grand lodge of the order of the state at the Weller theatre. The response was made by E. W. Ellis, grand chancellor and the convention formally begun.

The only contests for office announced at this meeting are for grand outer guard, four candidates coming out today. The officers will be elected next December. The grand outer guard candidates are A. C. Clouse, Sandusky; B. F. McDonald, Newark; Albert B. Trubey, Tuscarawas county and Col. J. H. Wells, Ashland. Boosting their candidate for office and as the next meeting place a delegation of 5000 Newark Pythians will come for the big parade tonight. With the installation of officers and selection of meeting places next year the session will close. Cleveland, Columbus, Sandusky and Newark are after the meet. The convention attendance is estimated at 5,000 with 900 delegates. The Pythian Sisters are also in session.

SMALL STATE DECLARES IT WILL BE NEUTRAL

Zurich, Switzerland, June 8.—The principality of Liechtenstein, nominally a sovereign state, in reality connected by treaties, a customs union and telegraphic and postal communication with Austria-Hungary, has declared its neutrality in the war. Consequently the Swiss government, with the consent of France, is allowing the transit for Liechtenstein of what entering French ports. The principality is located between Austria and Switzerland. It has an area of sixty-five square miles and a population of about eleven thousand persons, almost all devoted to agriculture.

Austria-Hungary has notified Switzerland that Liechtenstein is under its censorship, telegraphic and postal, and that it is within the Austro-Hungarian theatre of war.

LOOKS, IS KILLED

London, June 8.—According to a letter received here Anthony Wilding, the lawn tennis champion who was killed on May 11, was in charge of a motor automobile on the French front. He had left his gun in a safe place and was watching the effect of the artillery fire from a reserve trench when a shell fell close to him and caused instant death.

GIVES WIVES $2.85

London, June 8.—In view of the increased cost of living, the government has made a small raise in the scale of payment to the wives and dependent children of injured Germans and Austro-Hungarians. The wife is allowed under the new scale $2.85 with an extra 45 cents for each child.

KORN KARNIVAL WILL MAKE HISTORY IN PEERLESS CITY

Parade, Apple Show, Children's Day, Etc., Planned; Post Cards To Boost Big Event

There is no question about the 1915 Korn Karnival surpassing the Karnival that attained such successful heights last year in enthusiasm, displays, attractions and in magnificent parades.

This became evident at a rousing big meeting of directors of the Retail Merchants' Association and chairman of the various committees held Monday night in the Retail Merchants' headquarters in the Naamnia Temple.

Capt. J. W. Smith, who is chairman of the manufacturing committee was present as were Dick Richards of the advertising committee, St. Straus of the amusement committee, Dr. J. W. Keyes of the fruit display committee, the only absentee being Warwick W. Anderson, chairman of the parade committee.

Euphorism ran high at the meeting and there was an interchange of ideas that will reflect all sorts of credit upon this year's show.

Plan For Big Fruit Display

The meeting had not progressed very far until those present became thoroughly satisfied that the fruit display this year would be made one of the distinct features of the Karnival. Uniform boxes will be purchased in which to display fruit grown in this community. Everybody likes to look at pretty fruit and every effort will be made to make this feature of the Karnival one that will elicit favorable comment from every one of the thousands of visitors who will inspect it.

Dr. J. W. Keyes was present last night and offered a number of splendid suggestions which will be worked out harmoniously. He told of the damage that the fire blight had caused to fruit, but assured the various committeemen and directors of the association that Scioto county would produce fruit that would make a magnificent display at the Karnival. The state-wide movement to spray all fruit trees was also taken up and discussed.

Manufacturers Will Be There

Capt. James W. Smith, chairman of the manufacturing committee received much applause when he announced that the manufacturers would again figure conspicuously in the Karnival with their displays and that many of the larger firms would use more display space than last year.

There will be some more parades to enliven the big show this year. There will be a Children's Parade, a Bill Parade for all bills in the old town, the ever interesting Farmers' Parade, the glittering Fraternal Parade and the hilarious Masked Parade will close the Karnival on Saturday night.

Plan For Living Flag

A living flag is to feature the Children's Parade. There will be rows of children dressed in red, white and blue and the various states will be represented in the pageant. It is an ingenious idea and coming just now will have special significance attached to it. It will be a walking symbol of patriotism and no doubt will be one of the worth while features of the show.

Prizes For Quartettes

A gold medal is to be given to the best singing quartet taking part in a singing contest, a silver medal will be given to the second best and a cash prize will be given to other singing fours.

Then There Will Be The Old Fiddlers' Contest

Which always attracts a lot of attention, and many other features which will make the Korn Karnival of 1915 one long to be remembered.

Plenty Of Amusements

St. Straus, chairman of the amusement committee announced Tuesday that a merry-go-round, Ferris wheel and an ocean wave had already been secured for the Karnival.

Post Card Day Will Be Feature

Post Card Day will be observed when every resident of the city and county will be asked to drop a card to out of town relatives or friends reminding them of the Korn Karnival. Twenty thousand cards will be on sale.

A Number Of Big Outdoor Free Acts Will Be Secured

A number of big outdoor free acts will be secured, thousands of gayly colored pennants will be used to advertise the show and Korn Karnival feathers will be purchased to add a touch of originality to the schemes to be used to exploit the greatness of the show in all surrounding counties and cities. Dick Richards being the man behind the guns in the advertising line.

HOW CARELESS, LEFT TREE ON LOT

An East End citizen lodged complaint with the police that Teamster Luther Griffin had deposited a large tree on his lot.

INVITATIONS OUT FOR O. S. U. COMMENCEMENT

Relatives and friends in this city of this year's graduates of Ohio State University have received elegant invitations to the commencement exercises at State, beginning next Sunday, June 13, and extending until Wednesday, June 16. Next Sunday is the date of the baccalaureate services at the Armory. W. O. Thompson the president of O. S. U., will deliver the baccalaureate sermon.

On Monday The Class Exercises

comprising many interesting and novel features, will be held. Tuesday is Alumni Day with the 2nd graduation exercises on Wednesday at the Armory. President Thompson is the presiding officer of the day. The annual address will be delivered by Dr.

Charles E. Jefferson and will be followed by the conferring of degrees, presentation of certificate, announcement of prizes, honors, scholarships and fellowships.

The week's exercises closes with the enjoyable Senior Promenade Wednesday evening at the Armory.

Ontsy Renigged

Chief McCarty says "Catsy" Sly knocked him out of a trip. "Catsy" had been released Saturday on his own recognizance to appear Monday evening when he was to be deported to the workhouse. He failed to keep his word.

WILL READ PAPER

At the next meeting of the Hempstead Academy of Medicine to be held Monday, June 14, a paper will be read by Dr. S. D. Ruggles, a local dentist. His subject will be, "Mouth Infection and Systemic Disease," and it will be illustrated by stereopticon slides.

All dentists in the city are invited to this meeting.

Girls Drill

Form in line! Forward march!

This was the word that was given by the lieutenant, Mrs. E. M. Gentry, whose company composed of young ladies, give a drill at Allen Chapel A. M. E. church last evening by Junior Stewardess in the lecture room to a good audience. They were dressed in beautiful costumes with college hats. When the music started up by Mrs. Nettie Turner the company gave one of the most finest drills ever given in the church.

The company of ladies was highly applauded by the audience. Mrs. Gentry has been rehearsing for the last three weeks with her company for this drill, and they are now ready to be called out for war in case that Uncle Sam calls them to the front. The following ladies took part in the drill: Mrs. Turner, Mrs. Fossett, Mrs. Hollingsworth, Miss Hollingsworth, Miss Rider, Miss Johnson, Mrs. Banks, Miss Jones, Mrs. Cross, Mrs. Garrett, Miss Berry, Mrs. McConnell, Mrs. Tanner. After the drill the ladies served a fine supper.

Defeated Waverly

The Carlisle Indians, who played here Sunday, defeated Waverly Monday afternoon in an eight inning game, 8 to 5, ruin putting an end to the battle. The Waverly team is open to engagements with all clubs in this section of the state, and games can be arranged by getting in communication with the manager, William H. Blunt.

War In Park

Policeman Judd ended a wordy war between an aged man named Hibbard and son and some other men in York Place Monday evening by ordering them from the grounds. Hibbard, later appeared at the safety director's office making the plea that he was again threatened with blindness but he appeared more blind from drink than natural causes and was told to move on.

On Vacations

Officers Burns and Milhuff are off duty on their ten day vacations.

Fishing Party

James McMahon, veteran retired railroad man, and William Gargens, Jr. headed a North End party that waged war on the sunny tribe down the Ohio river Saturday afternoon.

Plan For Drainage

Acting upon complaints of the Idlewild Realty Company the city board of control will recommend to city council that an appropriation be provided to lay a small pipe sewer line over the new water works roadway through the underground crossing to carry surface water to the river. At present the surface water drains upon the realty company's property. The leak or living spring also complained of by the company and which is located near the filtration plant will be cared for by the erecting company.

With reference to paving the roadway, the city to give up 20 ft. and the company an equal amount for that purpose the board refused to take action until the water supply plant is placed in satisfactory condition.

Resigns Position

Laban Carpenter has resigned his position as pharmacist at the Fisher and Streich pharmacy.

SWITZER IS CANDIDATE; HARD MAY LAND PLUM

The Enquirer today said:

"Columbus, Ohio, June 8.—Congressman Robert M. Switzer, of Gallipolis, who is here to look after appointments for Republicans in the Tenth District, today made it known that he again would be a candidate in 1916 in the new district created by the Sprague gerrymander. The new lay-out is his old district of six years ago with Vinton county added.

"Switzer has not landed anything for his constituents, although it was strongly tipped today that Charles E. Hard, of Portsmouth, vice chairman of the Republican State Executive Committee, would be named to succeed Prof. M. R. Hammond, of the Ohio State University, as a member of the State Industrial Commission.

"Hard formerly was postmaster at Portsmouth, and for many years was in the newspaper business.

BEAUTIFUL SCENERY OF SOUTH WEST DESCRIBED BY MRS. A. Z. BLAIR

Glowing accounts of the beautiful scenery of the Southwest through which she and her party traversed by automobile were contained in a letter received Monday by Judge A. Z. Blair from his wife, who is headed for home with her son Guy, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Armstrong.

The letter was post marked at Roswell, New Mexico, last Wednesday, but was written the day before in Guy Blair's automobile which he purchased in El Paso. They will travel the entire distance in an automobile.

CEMETERY MEN TO MEET

Henry Prosch, superintendent of Greenlawn cemetery, will leave Wednesday for Dayton where he will attend a convention of state cemetery superintendents. The sessions will be held at the Phillips House, Wednesday and Thursday. An excellent program has been arranged for both days. Charles Crain, formerly superintendent here, now of Tiffin, O., is on the program for an address.

MERCHANTS INVITED

Members of the Retail Merchants' Association and directors of this organization have been invited to spend Fourth of July with Henry Winter at his summer home, Pine Hill, which is beautifully located near Wadsworth Station. It is quite probable that many will accept the invitation and Mr. Winter assures them a royal good time.

WILL FINISH Y ROAD SEPT. 1

Contractor Arthur Shipson whose forces on the traction line grading job were handicapped by the rains of last month is again pushing that work. He, too, is making steady progress on the road job which he hopes to complete by September 1. One of his most valuable mules dropped dead the other night.

LABOR COUNCIL

The Central Labor Council held a splendidly attended meeting Monday night and a number of matters came up for final disposition. A resolution was adopted from the Central Federated Union of New York, condemning the conviction of J. R. Lawson, of the United Mine Workers of America.

The union also unanimously adopted a resolution from the Columbus Federation of Labor upholding action taken by judges who held that it was unlawful to discharge a man because of his affiliation with a labor organization.

Sewing Circle With Much Whispering

Before the stock arrives there is much to talk about. The comfort of the expectant mother is the chief topic. And there is sure to be someone who has used or knows of that splendid external help, "Mother's Friend." It is applied to the abdominal muscles, gently rubbed in and has a most pronounced effect as a lubricant. It soothes the network of nerves, enables the muscles to expand naturally, relieves strain on the ligaments and thus acts as a safe and steady strain on the organs involved. And it does this with perfect safety. Expectant mothers thus go through the ordeal with comparative ease and comfort. Knowing mothers who have used "Mother's Friend" speak in glowing terms of the absence of morning sickness, absence of strain on the ligaments and a freedom from many other distresses.

You can get "Mother's Friend" at any drug store or they will gladly get it for you. Write today to Bradford Regulator Co., 401 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for a highly instructive book of great value to all expectant mothers. It contains a valuable expectancy chart, rules on diet and is bristled of suggestions that all women will appreciate.

An Easy, Pleasant Laxative. One or two Dr. King's New Life Pills with a tumbler of water at night. No bad, nauseating taste; no belching gas. Go right to bed. Get a bottle today—enjoy this easy, pleasant laxative.

Bluefield Visitor

W. R. Wiley, N. & W. agent at Bluefield was in the city on business Monday and Tuesday.

NO HOME IS COMPLETE WITHOUT

B. T. U. of N. G.

Crossing Permits Are Given Interurban; Route Changed

Ironton, Ohio, June 8.—The county commissioners, County Auditor S. A. Bowman, Attorney O. E. Irish and representatives of the Ohio Valley Traction company, went down to the Winkler Crossing Monday for the purpose of investigating a crossing for the traction line, which the company desires.

The commissioners gave the company permits for overhead crossings at Winklers and at McKee's, just below Hanging Rock.

It is now understood that the traction line will be run behind the houses along the hillside from Hanging Rock to Ironton. The high prices asked for the right of way by the property owners along here has led to this determination. The work of constructing this line is being pushed right along.

THAT TERRIBLE BACKACHE

from which so many women suffer is significant of organic trouble. It tells, with other symptoms, such as headaches, nervousness, and depression, that nature requires assistance. For forty years Lydin E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a simple remedy made from roots and herbs, has been the one effective remedy in such cases. It speedily removes the cause and restores the system to a healthy normal condition.

Rev. Crabtree New Pastor At Hutchins Street Baptist Ch.

The Rev. W. W. Crabtree is the new pastor of the Hutchins Street Baptist church, having accepted a call extended to him some time ago and he has moved his family here from Albany, Athens county, Ohio.

Mr. Crabtree, prior to coming to Portsmouth, was engaged in evangelistic work in Gallia and Athens counties. Rev. and Mrs. Crabtree have gone to housekeeping on McConnell avenue. Rev. Crabtree is an old Portsmouth boy and his many friends will be glad to learn that he and his estimable family will return to this city.

He is the first regular pastor of the Hutchins Street Baptist church since Rev. Freeman Chase resigned. Rev. Chase was pastor of this church 11 years.

FUND GROWING

Fire Chief McQuat stated Monday night that the fund to entertain visitors to the Firemen's State Convention to be held here in September had reached $940 and was still going up.

"I have a lot of people to see yet and expect to have the amount go over the $1,000 mark in a few days," said the chief, who is laboring industriously to this end.

Accused Of Contributing To Delinquency Of Young Girl

In juvenile court Tuesday morning an affidavit was filed against Charles Simms, paymaster for the Whitaker-Glessner Company, of New Boston, charging him with contributing to the delinquency of Florence Ketter, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ketter, of Sciotoville.

At the same time an affidavit was filed against the girl, charging her with delinquency. The affidavits were sworn to by Rosa Ketter, 21, a sister of the girl, who was accompanied to Judge Beatty's office by her aunt, Mrs. Ketter, of Sciotoville.

Deputy Sheriff Rame Arthur was dispatched to Sciotoville after the girl, and on his way down with her, stopped at the steel plant office at New Boston and placed Simms under arrest.

Both Simms and the girl were ordered to jail pending an investigation. Simms' bond being fixed at $500.

The elder sister claims that for the past several weeks Simms and her sister Florence have been meeting clandestinely in the woods back of Sciotoville, and that they have been guilty of immoral conduct. Judge Beatty stated after the arrest that numerous reports of improper relations between Simms and the girl had reached his office during the past few weeks.

Gossip in Sciotoville for the past two months had the names of Simms and the Ketter girl linked together for the past two months, according to statements of residents.

Simms is widely known in Portsmouth and vicinity, and his numerous friends are loath to believe the truth of the charge against him. He strenuously denies his guilt. He is married and is the father of a baby about three months old. He and his wife make their home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Davenport, of Sciotoville, not far from the Ketter home.

Charles Simms was still in the custody of Sheriff Smith at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon, having been unable to furnish the required bond of $500. It is thought that his friends will be able to effect his release later this afternoon. Judge Beatty has assigned his case for hearing on June 22 at nine o'clock.

Mrs. Simms visited her husband at the sheriff's office about two o'clock this afternoon.

can also buy a striped suit which is sometimes used for bathing suits.

Dear Miss Wise.—There has got into my flour sack a lot of little brown insects about an eighth of an inch long. I suppose they are weevils. Can you give me some way to get rid of them.

HOUSEWIFE.
About the only way I know of is to sift 'em out, then keep your flour covered so they can't get in again.

Dear Miss Wise.—I am going to give a surprise birthday party in honor of my sister's twelfth birthday. Kindly suggest decorations and what food to serve. The birthday is in June. I would like to use place cards if you think they are appropriate for children's parties.

MABEL.
June is the month of roses. Carry out a pink and white color scheme. Have bunches of roses in the rooms and serve pink and white ice cream and have a pink birthday cake. Place cards are appropriate with the color scheme. Little pink crepe paper baskets, with rose buds woven into the handles make very pretty favors. They are filled with candy.

Dear Miss Wise.—Please tell me the price of admission at the bathing beach. What kind of material besides serge is used for making bathing suits?

POLLY ANNE.
The charge is 25 cents for use of bathing suit, dressing room and towel. If you have your own bathing suit the charge is 15 cents and five cents extra if you want a towel. Mohair or luster is very nice for bathing suits. You must be polished!

NETTIE.
Make a mixture of borax, ammonia and water and apply it to the article with a soft cloth. Rinse well through several waters. Bonnet is also good for cleaning aluminum ware.

Dear Miss Dolly.—Would like to know if I could wear a dark purple dress. I have hazel eyes, black brows and lashes and a clear dark complexion.

HAZEL.
Yes, I should think it would be very becoming. Have a white collar, yoke or vest to relieve the severity of so much color.

Dear Dolly.—What color dresses would be pretty for two little flower girls at a wedding?

BRIDE-ELECT.
Why not let them wear white dresses, and if you wish to introduce color to carry out any particular color scheme, use it in the form of sashes, hair ribbons or trimmings on little bonnets.

Dear Dolly.—I have a cream colored net dress and was thinking of having it made over black satin, or velvet. Do you think that would be effective?

MRS. R. S.
I don't believe the combination you suggest would be especially attractive. If you insist on the net, have it made over the same color, and have the girdle and trimming at the throat of pink crepe net or charmeuse. This would be more attractive for summer wear than the satin or velvet.

Dear Dolly.—How can Alum-

SOCIETY

Mrs. Robert S. Kyle gave a beautiful tea this afternoon complimentary to her sister, Mrs. Adolf Thoen, of Columbus. The rooms were adorned in gorgeous roses. Eighty guests called during the receiving hours. The dainty refreshments were served in the dining room, which was adorned in yellow and white. The table was a beauty with a dainty basket of yellow and white Shasta daisies and corymbia and yellow shaded candles. Miss Elizabeth Dice presided at the coffee hour during the first hour and Mrs. Charlie Nichols poured the coffee during the second hour. The refreshments were served by Mesdames Ann Jordan, James W. Bannan, Jr., W. H. Sprague, R. O. LeBaron, Guy Thompson and Miss Sue Purcell. Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. Jay Lee Cross, of Cleveland, Mrs. McIntyre, and Miss McIntyre, of Glendale, guests of Mrs. John Feebles.

Mrs. Charles E. Hard's class of Trinity Methodist Sunday school held a pretty pink and white party last evening at the home of Mrs. Wilson McClain, corner of Timmonds Avenue and Seventeenth Street, in honor of Miss Helen Hoyce, who is soon to be married to Mr. Oglesby, of Middletown. Miss Hoyce was presented with a beautiful basket of pink roses, orange blossoms and pansies, beneath which was secreted a handsome cut-glass compote, a gift from the class to the bride-to-be, who was much surprised and very much appreciated the beautiful gift. The rooms were profusely decorated in pink and white roses. The refreshments of ice cream, heart-shaped cakes and bon-bons were also in the pink and white colors. Those present were: Mesdames Hard, John W. Flood, Charles Warnock, W. W. Anderson, W. H. Eschman, J. T. Micklethwaite, Arthur Oakes, C. E. Hard, G. H. Toner, James Dawson, W. E. Allen, Joseph Carlin, the Misses Ruth Pray, Alice Pray, Edith Royce, Helen Royce, Grace Gynn, Gertrude Davidson, Alma Davidson and two guests; Miss Verena Graham and Miss Frances Prunha, of Jeffersonville, Ind., who is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Warnock.

The visiting hostesses of the occasion were Mesdames Charles E. Hard, W. H. Eschman, W. W. Anderson, Joseph Micklethwaite, Arthur Oakes and Miss Edith Royce.

Grav. Williams will arrive home Thursday from Philadelphia, where he attends the University of Pennsylvania.

The Young People's Missionary Society of Bigelow Methodist church held an interesting meeting last evening at the home of Mrs. James W. Bannan, Jr., who was assisted by her two sisters, Misses Sue and Marjorie Purcell.

In the business session the old officers were re-elected as follows: President—Miss Myrtle Foster.

Vice-Presidents—Misses Dora Dalton and Ida Mercer.

Secretary—Miss Grace Mine.

Treasurer—Miss Myrtle Little.

The rooms were beautifully adorned with cherry branches filled with the luscious fruit. Included in the interesting program was a paper on "Life in Porto Rico" by Miss Marjorie Purcell. The hostesses served delicious refreshments.

The next meeting will be a rag carpet sewing at the home of Miss Harriet Scarff, where Miss Emma Johnston will be the assisting hostess.

Mrs. Jennie Hill of Lucasville held a surprise party Monday night, June 7, for her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Dawson, in honor of her seventy-fifth birthday. Many useful and beautiful gifts were received which made the event a happy one for Mrs. Dawson.

Cranes and coffee were served as refreshment and the evening was passed very agreeably by all present. Those present were Mrs. Jimmie Hill, her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Dawson, Floyd and Charley Hill, Mesdames B. F. Gentry, G. Southworth, M. Burns, W. Bonzo, David Brant, Ernest Turnest, Brant E. Crabtree, Dr. Whitten, A. Jacobs, C. Schoonover, S. Johnson, J. Banner, Rev. and Mrs. I. C. Peismeyer, Esther Peismeyer, Mrs. L. Pennylacker.

Mrs. and Mrs. Henry Heer entertained the members of the Dinner Club last evening at their home on Offutt street.

Mrs. Gholson, of Ironton, is visiting Mrs. Savage at the home of Dr. P. H. Williams.

Class Number 2 of Grandview Avenue Christian Bible school will meet this evening at the home of Mr. Floyd Saylor, 2014 High street. All members are invited.

Mrs. John Reilly has as guest Mrs. Harry Waller, of Bluefield, W. Va.

Mrs. Daniel Fisher of 1547 Ninth street is visiting relatives and friends in Wellston.

The East Portsmouth L. T. L. will meet in Manly basement Wednesday afternoon after school.

The Friendly Circle Club of the First Baptist church will hold a Kensington Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Reikhardt, on Grandview avenue.

Mrs. George Fletcher Thomas, of Eighth street, has issued invitations to an at home Thursday afternoon, the tenth of June, from three until five o'clock.

Mr. Clifford Council visited friends in Cincinnati Sunday.

Miss Esta Will, who has been the guest of Rev. and Mrs. Charles R. Oakley, of Third street, for the past few days, left Monday for Columbus, where she will act as secretary to the minister of the Fourth Avenue Christian church.

Miss Will was secretary to Rev. Oakley during his pastorate in Mansfield, O., and she is a most talented and intelligent young woman.

Mrs. Herbert Boring, of High street, who has been ill for one week with tonsillitis, is improving slowly. Clara Boring is recovering from a two weeks' illness with scarlet fever.

Mrs. Lawrence Ferguson, of Sixth street, is the guest of her sister on the West Side.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schafstahl, of Sixth street, spent Saturday and Sunday in Cincinnati. They made the trip in their touring car.

Frank Rodenbeck and son, Clem Rodenbeck, and the latter's wife, of West Union, spent Sunday visiting C. E. Watson and family, of Sixth street and Campbell avenue. They made the trip in Charles Hohner's automobile.

The Buckeye Kensington Club will meet tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. P. Purcell, on Fourth street.

The Second Street Whist Club met this afternoon at the home of Miss Kate Kinney. Mrs. J. L. Watkins will be hostess at the next meeting.

Mrs. John Peckles' guests, Mrs. McIntyre and Miss McIntyre, will leave tomorrow for their home in Glendale.

The members of the Art Circle will go to Wheelersburg, Wednesday, and take dinner at the Baker House.

Mr. M. W. Dunner, secretary of the United States committee of the Mission to Lepers, an international and international work for Lepers in ninety Oriental stations located in China, Japan, India, Africa, North and South America, will tell the story of world-wide work among Lepers at the Second Presbyterian church on Thursday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock. The talk will be illustrated by large photographs taken on the foreign field showing in a definite way one of the most far-reaching phases of missionary work. We have dimly realized that there are tens of thousands abroad in the world, and to discover that there are 500 Lepers in the United States is startling. The United States has a hospital in the Hawaiian Islands to care for the unfortunate. There are two well-conducted state asylums for Lepers in Louisiana, there being 105 Lepers in the latter hospital. Ex-President Taft strongly commends the Mission to Lepers in its fight against the disease.

The East Portsmouth W. C. T. U. will meet Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Oscar Shoemaker, 1829 Highland avenue. All members are urged to be present.

Miss Ethel Cross, former local nurse, now located in Iowa, who has been visiting at the home of the Misses Anna Perry and Elizabeth Porter, of Gay street, for the past week, returned to the home of relatives in Chillicothe Tuesday morning, where she will continue her visit. She was accompanied to Chillicothe by Misses Perry and Porter, Edna Boyer and Miss Bertha Harris, the trip being made in an automobile.

The Women's Missionary Federation, which meets quarterly, held the last of this year's meetings yesterday afternoon in Bigelow chapel. In the roll-call the First Presbyterian church had the largest number present. The Manly church was the second largest number of members.

The devotions were led by Mrs. W. T. Gilliland.

Mrs. Lena Kline Reed read a missionary selection and also read an interesting letter from Rev. David Tappan, of Hainan, China, formerly of Portsmouth. Little Misses Elizabeth and Carolyn Nye sang a pretty duet, accompanied by Mrs. Spencer Cole.

Miss Leta Adams read an interesting paper on "The Work Among the Lepers."

Mrs. E. F. Rideout gave an instructive talk. After the program officers for the new year were elected, as follows:

President—Mrs. W. T. Gilliland.

Vice-Presidents—Mrs. Howard Sallards, Mrs. J. W. Dunning and Miss Ida Herra.

Secretary—Mrs. E. F. Rideout.

Mr. and Mrs. John Capehart, of Second street, have been visiting relatives in Pomeroy the past few days.

Mrs. Mary Brookhart and little daughter, of Woodfield, O., are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Melcher, of Findlay street.

Mr. and Mrs. Forest Meeker and Mr. and Mrs. Carson Gordon and son, Scott, of Third street, have returned home after a pleasant visit with Mr. and Mrs. William Scott and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gordan, of Chillicothe, having made the trip in Mr. Meeker's Ford machine.

Moses and Max Lehman and their families spent Sunday at Mineral Springs, making the trip in the former's touring car.

Will the members of the High School Alumni, who are intending to attend the banquet please notify Mr. Will Richardson, 1708 Hutchins avenue, as soon as possible?

The Manly Ladies' Aid Society will meet Thursday afternoon in the church parlors. The hostesses will be Mesdames Joseph Mitchell, George Mooney, J. A. Miller, J. D. McNamara, J. H. Myers. All women of the church are invited.

The members of the Art Circle will go to Wheelersburg, Wednesday, and take dinner at the Baker House.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

A marriage license was issued Monday evening to Elmer Chapman, 24, an N. & W. brakeman, and Miss Louella Bennett, 24, both of this city. Rev. W. W. Crabtree officiated.

A marriage license was issued Tuesday morning to Taylor Henson, 24, a steel worker, of Detroit, and Ina Cassidy, 16, of New Boston. They were married by Rev. Albert Marting at his residence on Sixth street.

Jerry H. Arthur, foreman of the B. & O. S.W. freight station, is laid up at his home, No. 415 Court street, with a severe attack of inflammatory rheumatism.

Mrs. Edward Gore of Eighth street underwent a delicate surgical operation Monday. She is a patient at the Hempstead hospital. Her condition is reported satisfactory.

Mrs. John G. Hughes and son, Crend, of Plattsburg, N. Y., arrived Monday to make an extended visit with Mrs. Hughes' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Crend Milstead, of Sixth street. Later in the summer Mr. Hughes will join them and accompanying them home.

The sixth birthday anniversary of Mary Katherine, the sweet little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Baker, was recently celebrated at the Second Street Kindergarten. The teacher, Miss Bertha Gillman, and twenty-five little tots were present to help celebrate the event. Mrs. Margaret Wilson, little Bobbie Taylor, Louis Baker, younger brother of the hostess, were also guests. Ice cream and cake were served from a prettily decorated table, which had for its centerpiece a birthday cake containing six white candles. Boxes filled with candy were given as souvenirs. Mrs. Baker was assisted by Miss Gillman and Mrs. Wilson in serving the children.

FOUGHT FOR HIS LIFE IN A SPEEDING N. & W. CAR

The Ironton Register says: "To fight for his life, with only his bare hands for weapons, against a burly negro armed with a knife and a club, in an open freight car on a fast moving train on the N. & W. was the thrilling experience Friday evening of James Fullerton, well known citizen of Coal Grove and until recently an employee of the N. & W."

"That he escaped with his life is due to the fact that he succeeded in attracting the attention of the trainmen who came to his rescue and put his burly assailant to flight. While the train was moving at the rate of probably fifteen miles an hour he vaulted over the side of the car and ran through a wheat field, disappearing in the gloom."

"As the result of his hair-breadth escape, Mr. Fullerton is minus his fine watch and heavy gold chain, several dollars in money and his body is covered with numerous bruises, caused by his bumping against the side of the car and he has a long scratch on the back of his neck made by the point of the negro's knife when he attempted to stab him in the neck."

"The thrilling experience occurred early Friday evening a few miles out of Portsmouth where Mr. Fullerton had been on a business trip Friday afternoon. Not wishing to wait until the regular passenger and used to riding freight trains, Mr. Fullerton after talking with the engineer and trainmen, went back several cars and prepared to ride to his home in Coal Grove where he would arrive several hours before the passenger train. When just past the terminals Mr. Fullerton says that a negro who was quite husky and who would weigh about 170 or 180 pounds, boarded the train while it was going at a good rate of speed. The man had a short stout club in his hands, but seemed to be sociable and he and Fullerton began to talk about common place things. Suddenly when the train was a few miles out of Portsmouth, the man assumed a menacing aspect and drew his club to hit Fullerton, though the attempted blow was wholly without warning he managed to ward it off and in doing so struck the wrist of his assailant who dropped the club. Not taking time to pick it up from where it had fallen he reached down the back of his neck and drew a knife and once more made an assault. Aided by the weaving of the car Mr. Fullerton for minutes kept him at bay trying all the while to attract the attention of the trainmen.

"Finally when his case seemed hopeless and thinking that the negro only wanted his money and watch he offered to give them to him if he would desist. The man took the money and watch, but instead of stopping his attack he redoubled his efforts and said: 'I'll kill you now.' Mr. Fullerton is a slight man and unused to hard work, being a pumpman, but the knowledge that his life depended upon the outcome of the fight gave him courage and strength and was able to meet the assault and keep away from the knife."

"When the negro saw a brakeman coming he desisted from his attacks and vaulted out of the car disappearing in a wheat field. The train crew stopped the freight and were for organizing a posse to pursue the man and get him, but Mr. Fullerton was too far gone to want much other than rest and the party contented themselves notifying the police of the nearby cities who are on the lookout for him."

"Though the incident occurred Friday night and has been generally known among railroad men the police have not given the story out for publication and preferred to keep the matter a secret, while they attempted to locate their man. Mr. Fullerton describes his assailant as a large negro, dressed in ordinary working clothes and says that he will be able to identify him if he is caught."

FRICK PETITIONS ON THE STREET

All doubt as to Mayor Frick becoming a candidate for re-election as mayor, on the Democratic ticket was removed when his petitions were put into circulation Tuesday morning.

Petitions were also circulated for William E. Cook for vice mayor although he has not yet given his final answer due to the critical illness of Mrs. Cook which will probably preclude him making a personal campaign. He, however, is expected to consent to the use of his name.

The Busy Farmers

"Making Hay While the Sun Shines", has been put into practical effect by farmers during the past two days of dry weather.

Farmers were decidedly enthusiastic by their absence from Market street Saturday. There has been so much rain of late that all look advantage of the change to fair weather. Dave Stahler alone had 15 men at work on his farm Saturday putting in hay.

Attended Exercises

Postmaster Sherd Easter, Ex-Postmaster John Harcha and James Nelder, of Buena Vista, were here Sunday attending the Old Fellows Memorial exercises. Dr. James Frizzell, of the same village, also spent Sunday here.

CAR SIDESWIPE HOODOO COTTAGE

The hoodoo which has pursued that cottage which Charles Ball moved off the new county bridge site seems to be still hovering over it.

On Saturday night a wide car of a passing B. & O. S-W. freight train side-wiped the cottage at Ninth and Court streets, tearing out one whole corner. Mr. Ball expects to locate it on a lot there. He is within fifty feet of his destination, but is finding it difficult getting through the narrow space that forms the approach. Delays encountered at the start caused him to incur the ill-will of Second street residents, then followed an injunction by the street railway, and still further delay, and once that was settled his property suffered a bad breakdown in rounding the corner of Second and Madison streets, and next he had to run the gauntlet of the women of Third street for alleged damaging their shade trees.

OWL CARNIVAL

Allen Castaler, a local member of the Owls, while on a visit to Parkersburg, W. Va., last week saw the Sheesley-Greuter Shows which will hold forth on the old mill lot one week in August under the auspices of the Owls. Mr. Castaler advised the local nest at their regular meeting Monday evening that the carnival company was bigger and better than ever this season.

Ray McElhenny of the local Nest will go to South Bend this week to attend a meeting of the Second Degree members. He may be elected to the Third degree while there.

Visit New Railway

Many sight-seers Sunday visited the scene of the extensive grading being done for the C. & O. Northern Railway back of Seafordville.

One of the big cuts is 95 feet deep and two steam shovels and six "dinky" engines are now engaged on the work which is being pushed with all possible haste by Contractor Reinhardt.

Little New In The Plumbers' Rumpus

Nothing new has developed in the past few days in the controversy between the employers and the Building Trades Council, both sides awaiting the arrival Friday of Judge W. P. Stephenson, who will assign the case for hearing at an early date.

Harry Strong, business agent of the Council, wired the chief counsel for the defendants, Nicholas

Klein, to come Wednesday noon for a conference with his clients, and his arrival is expected at that time. The twelve local firms, plaintiffs, are seeking to permanently dissolve the Building Trades Council as an organization, on the ground that it is illegal, and are also seeking to enjoin permanently the members from alleged interfering with the business of the plaintiffs.

PICNIC THIS EVENING

The Senior Christian Endeavor of the First Christian church will picnic at Beeches Grove at the head of Unkhard avenue, this (Tuesday) evening, after working hours, instead of Thursday evening, as was announced yesterday. You are most cordially invited to participate. Bring a box and come along.

8th Grade Pupils Graduate Tonight

Certificates of promotion will be issued this evening at the high school auditorium to one hundred and thirty-three pupils of the eighth grades of the various elementary school buildings, whose work has entitled them to promotion to the high school. Suitable exercises will mark the occasion, which is one of the big features of commencement week.

NOW YOUR CORN MUST GO

Dr. Hunt Discovers Method that Kills Corns by Penetration. ONLY 10c.

That old corn, that stubborn corn, that corn that one can't get rid of no matter how hard one tries, can now get rid of it once and for all, for Dr. Hunt of Sidney, Ohio, has discovered the scientific principle that makes corns go easily and painlessly.

Dr. Hunt's New Corn Cure does its work by penetration. That is Nature's own way. Goats to the very root of the corn. Corn lifts out, root, body and branch in two days.

No pain. No dangerous caustic ingredients. No liquids to dry out. No bulky pads or greasy salves. Dr. Hunt's New Corn Cure comes in ready-to-apply plaster form. Thin plaster exact size of corn and applied. More than two applications are seldom necessary for the most stubborn case. Your corn cures up at once. The soothing penetrating ingredient works without discomfort. In two days you have no corn. This is a doctor's discovery. The result of life-time study.

And a box-full costs you only ten cents. Guaranteed or money refunded. Sold by all druggists and shoe dealers. Or send ten cents in stamps to American Chemical Company, Sidney, Ohio.

Eighth grade commencement is a new departure in Portsmouth, but the indications are that it will be made a permanent feature of commencement week hereafter.

The program for the evening follows:

Invocation—Rev. W. T. Gilliland.
Song, "Long Live America"—
Pentecost—Eighth Grade Pupils.
Address—Rev. John Wirt Dunning.

Song, "Breathe Soft, Ye Winds"—
Pentecost—Eighth Grade Pupils.

Remarks by Prof. Frank Appel, superintendent of schools.

Presentation of certificates of promotion—Mrs. Pauline McKeown, principal of Union street building.
Hallelujah Chorus—Handel's Messiah—Eighth Grade Pupils.
Benediction.

Painting, graining and decorating estimates given. Staus, phone 1512-A.

Amos Burns has his left arm caught in a machine and badly bruised and sprained at the Portsmouth brick plant Saturday. Dr. W. E. Gault attended him.

Sunshine Social

There will be an ice cream and box social at Sunshine, Saturday night, June 19th. Everybody invited to come. The social is given for the benefit of the new church.

Club Has Meeting

The Jaunty Club met in regular session last Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Ethel Cole. Those present were E. Saunders, E. Huley, M. Carr, K. Hill, D. White, M. Chapman, N. Turner and F. Starks. M. Jackson. After needle work refreshments were served. The hostess was assisted by M. Jackson.

Girl Placed In Home

Sheriff Smith returned home Monday evening from Delaware, where he placed Densie Swogor in the Girls' Industrial Home. She was sentenced to that institution several days ago by Judge Beatty for delinquency.

Bitten By Dog

Raymond Harris, ten year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Harris of Mill street, was bitten in the left leg by a dog Monday. Mr. Harris reported the accident to the police.

Negro Coke Victim Tears Off Clothing

Thomas Fisher, the strange negro arrested Monday afternoon for frightening women in various parts of the city, was completely bereft of his reason the instant he was locked up in a cell.

Fisher began running around the cell, shouting wildly, and kept it up for several hours, or until he was almost completely exhausted. He had torn all of his clothes off by morning and stood in his cell staring into space. When taken into custody he imagined he was in Norfolk, Va., which he said was his birthplace and home. The police believe the man is deranged from excessive use of cocaine.

Fisher was adjudged insane at an inquest held in probate court this morning, and was ordered committed to the Athens asylum for the insane.

TERRIBLE BREAKING OUT ON HEAD

Itched and Burned. Child Would Scratch and Cry All Night. Spread Very Fast. Caused Hair to Fall Out. Used Cuticura. Trouble Gone.

"Blessed! Mrs. M.—'When my little daughter was two years old she had a terrible breaking out on her head which annoyed her a great deal. It came in yellow blisters which would break and run and where the matter would go it would break out again. She could not rest at night. It itched and burned. She would scratch and cry all night. The trouble spread very fast. It gave her great distress and caused her hair to fall out. I applied various remedies without any benefit. At last with but little faith I began the use of Cuticura Soap as a shampoo and then applied the Cuticura Ointment. In one week her trouble was all gone and she has never been bothered since.'"

Ohio Woman Recovers After Stomach Torture

Mrs. Nora Britton is well known in Caldwell, O., where she has lived for some time. Her many friends, who know the suffering she has endured from stomach trouble are marveling at the sudden and astonishing improvement in her condition.

Mrs. Britton credits her good fortune to a trial of May's Wonderful Remedy, and describes her experience as follows:

"For four years I suffered, no one knows what. I had six doctors but received no benefit. One said it was catarrh of the stomach, another recommended an operation. I had given up all hope when I saw an advertisement of May's Wonderful Remedy and decided to try it. Thank God, relief came at last. I can't say enough for it. I am pleased and thankful. I am recommending it to every person I meet, suffering with this ailment."

May's Wonderful Remedy gives permanent results for stomach, liver and intestinal ailments. But as much and whatever you like. No more distress after eating, pressure of gas in the stomach and around the heart. Get one bottle of your druggist now and try it on an absolute guarantee—if not satisfactory money will be returned.

Don't stay gray! Sage Tea and Sulphur dyes hair so naturally that nobody can tell.

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost overnight if you'll get a 60 cent bottle of "Witch's Sage and Sulphur Compound" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old, famous Sage Tea Recipe are sold annually, says a well-known druggist here, because it dyes the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray, becoming faded, dry, scraggly and thin have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful—all done with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.

BOB CALVERT BADLY HURT AT HOUMA, LA.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Calvert, former residents of this city, now living at Houma, La., will regret to learn that Mr. Calvert suffered a serious accident last Friday, resulting in his collar-bone being broken, in addition to other injuries.

Mrs. Calvert, in letters to friends, says Mr. Calvert had been painting a big three-ton traction engine he owns, and had the back wheels raised about eight inches higher than the front ones. He was standing in front of the car adjusting the jack under the front, when the jack slipped and the machine gave a jump off the blocks in the rear.

"It caught him," says Mrs. Calvert, "between the square axle and a tool box that happened to be behind him. His face was against the axle and his shoulder against the box."

"His collar-bone was broken, also his nose; a tooth was knocked out and a gash inflicted from the side of his nose down through to his chin, requiring several stitches to close. He also had a cut on his chest, and his shoulders were very badly bruised."

Mrs. Calvert and son, William, managed to get Mr. Calvert free before any others arrived, they hearing his groans. A crowd soon collected and a doctor reached the scene in five minutes. The broken bones were set, and Mr. Calvert is now getting along as well as could be expected.

POLICE NEWS

Pete Reinhardt and Ben Neighbors were two familiar figures presented in police court Tuesday morning. Pete, who admitted that it was his third appearance in seven weeks, had had some trouble with his brother, Charles Reinhardt, Monday evening and abused his good parents when they ordered him away. He was fined $10 for his misconduct.

Neighbors had run away from the county infirmary, where he had been laid up for sixteen weeks with a broken leg, only to fall by the wayside. He was ordered to return to the infirmary.

Frank Coats was the name given by a tramp plasterer charged with drunkenness, and who came here recently from Wheeling and was given medical treatment at the infirmary. He no longer had the railroad ticket to Columbus that city officials had given him Monday and was therefore told to "hoof it" to the Capital City.

"Daddy" Weaver, who said he was a native of Chiffin's Mills, and who had just returned after a year's absence in Zanesville, had bowed up quite lively upon his arrival. He is hard of hearing, but seemed to understand the meaning of "Five dollars" shouted into his ears by Chief McCarty and promptly paid out.

R. A. Early, who was arrested by Detective L. B. Minnis, of the B. & O. S. W., on a charge of train-ridding, was fined $10 and costs and sentenced to 10 days in jail. The case was suspended upon his story of having a wife and two children at Fairmount, W. Va., and that he came here in search of work. He claimed to be a former B. & O. S. W. employee.

Desperate Fight At The Stockham Plant

A commotion was created at the Stockham sand plant by a desperate fight between Henry Emmett, the veteran night watchman and Roy Martin, a North End youth, Monday evening.

Young Martin had climbed to the top of the high tower of the sand tipples and when ordered down by Emmett is said to have "wished" him "into a warmer climate." Emmett started after him and an exciting chase over the run-way and down the steep sand pile followed. Martin stumbled and landed in a heap at the bottom but quick as a flash grabbed a brick. The two clinched and after a few seconds struggle the two dropped to the street, the boy on top. He was raining blows on Emmett's face with his fist but Emmett succeeded in regaining his feet and was about to clean up with the youngster when John Newman, an engineer at the plant, separated them. By this time people swarmed from nearby homes and one young woman was with difficulty restrained by her husband from taking a hand in the melee. Martin after exchanging a few words with Emmett disappeared from the neighborhood.

ARE YOU'RE TAXES PAID?

ENJOYS LIFE IN OREGON

L. D. Crumston, who is located at Roseburg, Oregon, writes friends that he is well pleased with his surroundings there and that the weather has been fine. He says the climate is fine, there being no extremes in the heat. "There will be an abundance of fruit and vegetables and we have just closed a successful Strawberry Carnival," writes Mr. Crumston.

THIRTY-THREE YEARS AGO TODAY J. F. MENKE CAME TO CITY TO EMBARK IN GROCERY BUSINESS; STILL AT IT

Thirty-three years ago Tuesday there came to Portsmouth to make his start in the business world a young man who today enjoys the distinction of being the city's oldest grocer in point of service, namely John Frederick Menke.

Mr. Menke came to the city from near Powellsville, and on June 5, 1882, bought out his brother-in-law, John Ames, at Gay and Eleventh streets. He paid $150 for the fixtures and had $50 left with which to buy a stock of groceries. During the summer of 1883 he bought a lot and built a combination store and residence building at Eleventh and Findlay streets and occupied it November 8, 1883. He was there during the big flood of 1884. There was six feet of water in the store room. In January, 1895, he formed a partnership with George J. Schmidt and started the Central grocery in the Krieger building on Gallia street. They dissolved partnership in 1902, Mr. Menke going to the corner of Eighth and Chillicothe streets. On July 1, 1905, he moved to the Hill-top and has since remained in his present location, the southwest corner of Grant street and Hutchins avenue. Seven of his clerks during that period have since become grocers themselves. "Mandy," the boy mare, which so faithfully served her owner in delivering groceries for 24 years, is still in active service and seemingly as spry as ever. She is 29 years of age and Mr. Menke regards her as one of the best partners he ever had.

When Mr. Menke moved to the Hill-top he did so against the advice of many of his friends and associates, G. H. Heinisch particularly ridiculing the idea of his going out into the "woods," as he termed it. There were at that time only a dozen houses in the entire Hill-top district, which today forms one of the city's best and most desirable residence sections. There are now nine groceries in that district. R. O. Brady was the first to establish a grocery there and Mr. Menke followed. Today he enjoys an excellent patronage and he is there to stay.

Mr. Menke prides himself upon one thing, and that is, that he never sold on Sundays during his 33 years in business, with one single exception, and that was one Sunday during the 1913 flood. He recalls with much pleasure that one day he refused one of his best customers a can of peaches which she wanted to buy on Sunday, after unexpectedly receiving company. He expected her to quit, but a few days later, to his great surprise, she called around and assured him that she "thought more of him than ever. This all goes to bear out the fact that a grocer does not have to sell on Sundays," says Mr. Menke.

How Thin People Can Put On Flesh

A New Discovery

Thin men and women—that big, hearty, filling dinner you ate last night. What became of all the fat-producing nourishment it contained? You haven't gained in weight one ounce. That food passed from your body like unburned coal through an open grate. The material was there, but your food doesn't work and stick, and the plain truth is you hardly get enough nourishment from your meals to pay for the cost of cooking. This is true of thin folks the world over. Your nutritive organs, your functions of assimilation, are sadly out of gear and need reconstruction.

Cut out the foolish foods and funny snoddish diets. Omit the flesh cream rub-ons. Cut out everything but the meals you are eating now and eat with every one of those single Sargol tablets. In two weeks note the difference. Five to eight good solid pounds of healthy, "stay there" fat should be the net result. Sargol charges your weak, stagnant blood with millions of fresh new red blood corpuscles—gives the blood the carrying power to deliver every ounce of fat-making material in your food to every part of your body. Sargol, too, mixes with your food and prepares it for the blood in easily assimilated form. Thin people gain all the way from 10 to 25 pounds a month while taking Sargol, and the new flesh stays put. Sargol tablets are a scientific combination of six of the best flesh-producing elements known to chemistry. They come 40 tablets to a package, are pleasant, harmless and inexpensive, and Fisher & Streich and all other druggists in Portsmouth and vicinity sell them subject to an absolute guarantee of weight increase or money back.

Monday witnessed a rush of taxpayers to the county treasurer's office to pay their June taxes, and Treasurer M. J. Caldwell and his deputy, Gilbert Dodds, were kept on the go all day. The time is now getting short in which to pay taxes.

GUN VICTIM BETTER

The condition of William E. heart, victim of the shooting near Star Yards on Decoration Day, is showing marked improvement during the past two days. He has recovered slight use of his left limb, which, with his right, had been paralyzed ever since the shooting. Less than a week ago his recovery was considered improbable, but it is now thought that he will live, though permanently crippled. He is a patient at the Hempstead hospital and is being attended by the city physician, Dr. C. W. Wendelken.

Surprise For Circle

All members of River City Grove No. 194, are requested to attend the meeting tonight. A very enjoyable surprise will follow the routine business.

Dr. Locke Honored

The State Anti-Tuberculosis Society of Ohio at its meeting at the Chittenden hotel in Columbus, conferred an honor upon a Portsmouth physician as Dr. L. G. Locke was elected a trustee.

Dr. C. M. Wendelken, Judge Harry Ball and Mrs. J. L. Trouthart of this city also attended the meeting, which was preceded by a luncheon.

"There were more than 100 delegates present and it was the most enthusiastic meeting the society has ever held," said Dr. Locke upon his return to the city.

"The society is doing a wonderful work in stamping out tuberculosis in Ohio and more money will be spent to this end next year than last. Each year the appropriation for this work is to be increased," Dr. Locke declared.

A number of reports were submitted and they all showed the society to be in fine shape.

CHANGE IS PROBABLE IN HEALTH BOARD OFFICIALS

Prospects of an early reorganization of the board of health, with a probable shakeup in its official family were disclosed at the meeting Monday afternoon, when Den Labold, one of the members, sought information regarding the time and method of electing the salaried officers of the board, which included the health officer, city physician, dairy and milk inspector, plumbing inspector and sanitary inspector and sanitary officer and clerk.

Not a member or officer present could say positively whether or not any of the board's officers were prodded by civil service, and the matter was continued from the present, waiting advice from the city solicitor. It was understood, however, that this information would be available before the next meeting of the board in July, so that the reorganization could be effected at that time, if desired.

Mr. Labold's insistence for definite information indicated that he might have a card or two up his sleeve by the time the next meeting rolled around, but he refused to expose his plans.

It is the general opinion that none of the officers are protected by civil service unless it be Arthur Hinton, the plumbing inspector and sanitary policeman. The rules of the board state that the officers are to be elected at the first meeting after a new member is appointed each year, the term of office to be subject to the desire of the board.

Mayor Frick's announcement of his intention to appoint Dr. S. P. Fetter to succeed himself as a member of the board precipitated the attitude of Mr. Labold. His new term begins next month.

The usual wrangle over the issuing of licenses to plumbers occupied the greater part of the session, notwithstanding that it was thought to have been settled at the May meeting. The clerk reported that permits had been issued to nine applicants, and withheld from three others, owing to the failure of the mayor and plumbing inspector to sign the three permits.

That caused Capt. J. W. Smith to reopen the argument against withholding permits from anyone who furnished responsible sureties, he contending that the board did not have the authority to do so. The plumbing inspector's duties, he claimed, was to inspect plumbing and not to pass upon the competency of applicants for licenses.

In this, he was opposed by the mayor, who stated that his signature would not be placed on the permit of any applicant who could not show the proper efficiency in his work. Mr. Labold and Mr. Linck warmly supported the mayor, and at one time the argument between Mr. Smith and Mr. Labold waxed warm. The mayor did not think that the city should spend its money teaching someone one a trade.

Licenses were issued to Carl J. Doerr, Fred Burkhardt, C. B. Sharp, George E. West, Frank Bart, O. W. Clements, J. A. Kelley, E. S. Wilson and Frank Walker. The application of Elmer Malone, engineer at the high school building, was turned down because it was learned that he did not need a license to do the work he was compelled to do in his position. Permits were withheld, however, from William Evans and Lawrence Weichman, upon the statement of the plumbing inspector that they were not competent plumbers.

In concluding the argument, the mayor stated that since the board had appointed a plumbing inspector, he expected to be bound by his suggestions. He added that if the board thought that the inspector was not a competent man for the position, its recourse was to let him go and employ one who was.

Dr. W. W. Smith, the health officer, brought up a few alleged bad conditions in local houses, and was instructed to use his judgment.

The monthly schedule, amounting to $316.50, which included the salaries of the health officer, city physician, dairy and milk inspector, plumbing inspector and sanitary policeman and clerk, and a few incidental expenses, was approved.

Reports submitted at the meeting included the following for the month of May:

Report of Arthur Hinton, plumbing inspector, shows 133 inspections, 31 permits issued, receipts $71, $61.50 of which was for plumbing permits.

The mortality report of the clerk, John W. Berndt, gave the number of deaths for May as 28. Of this number, one was due to typhoid fever, 9 constitutional diseases, 17 local and 1 by violence.

The report of the city physician, Dr. C. W. Wendelken, was as follows: House visits, 172; office calls, 35; obstetrical cases, 2.

10¢ SENTANEL LAXATIVE TABLETS 10¢

CONSTIPATED? Well, don't be
Sentanel Laxatives conquer Constipation, stir up the Liver, purify the Blood, make you feel great! Wonderful little performers—10¢

Sentanel Laxatives make you feel great, because they are blood tonic, as well as a laxative; they clean out and clear up the system just a bit better than any other laxative. Sentanel don't stop when they have rid the bowels and intestines of their trouble. They go on. They cleanse and add vigor and strength to every organ and muscle of the body. That's the reason for our statement that Sentanel are more than just a physic.

Sentanel work painlessly. They are an all-vegetable compound, put up in tablet form and sugar-coated. Not a bit of calomel in them, so you need fear no nasty after-effects that so often follow the taking of that drug.

Have your druggist send you a box of Sentanel tonight. It does not come up to your expectations. They go on. They cleanse and add vigor and strength to every organ and muscle of the body. That's the reason for our statement that Sentanel are more than just a physic.

THREE LITTLE "HOME" BOYS WHO STARTED OUT TO SEE WORLD MEET DEATH IN SCIOTO WATERS

Bodies Of Victims Found In Ravine; Were Pitiful Sight

Companions in flight, fate decreed that Marion Timberlake, aged 14 years, Albert Hoover, 12, and Edward Covert 10, runaway boys from the county children's home, should die together; their dead bodies having been found in a ravine emptying into the Scioto river about 300 yards from the Portsmouth Chemical plant Tuesday morning.

It was about 10 o'clock that Officer Osborn while searching for Andy Verego, the fever-racked patient who escaped from Hempstead hospital and who is supposed to be wandering aimlessly about the bottoms unless dead, discovered the body of a boy near the east bank of the water-filled ravine floating face downward. He fastened the body, then hurried to D. Labold & Co.'s junk shop to notify police headquarters. During his absence Q. Adams and Henry Clifford, two North End young men, while searching for the clothes of the drowned boy, came across a second body about 25 yards from the other.

Coroner Dr. Walter Daehler was notified and after viewing the bodies which were in a badly swollen state ordered them turned over to the county undertaker, John Dice to be prepared for identification and burial.

THIRD BODY IS FOUND

Undertaker Dice had hardly gone with the two bodies when Stanley Hawkins, a boy, found a third body some distance further up the slough which is a continuation of the outlet of the old Sixth ward sewer.

The third body was out of the water head and hands together in a way indicating that he had met death while struggling desperately to climb up the slimy bank.

Had Evidently Tried To Wade

All three of the boys had caps and whistles on evidently having discarded their trousers to wade across the ravine, miscalculating the depth. The ravine was completely overflowed Sunday from the Scioto river backwater but when the bodies were found Tuesday it had gone down considerably. It was thick with soft mud. The ravine is hidden from view from one side by a thick growth of weeds and willows.

Coroner Daehler notified Miss Sadie Hamor, matron of the children's home, of the finding of the bodies but she was loath at first to believe that they were those of the missing trio, although they had been reported seen in the vicinity of Vera, the junction at the approach of the N. & W. bridge which spans the Scioto river.

Ran Away Saturday

The boys ran away from the county home Saturday afternoon while engaged in picking paper off the lawn and sweeping the walks. Their absence was discovered within a few minutes and police were notified, but further than the report that they had been seen near the N. & W. bridge no trace was found of them.

Marion Timberlake, the largest and eldest of the three boys, is a son of Emory Timberlake, whose present whereabouts are unknown he having eloped with a relative of his wife six years ago. Four years ago just before she died the mother, Mrs. Minnie Baldridge-Timberlake placed Emory in the county home where he had been an inmate ever since. His 14-year-old sister, Bertha, is also an inmate of the home while his two brothers, Gale, aged 10 years and Frank aged 8 years, make their home with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. David Timberlake of Third street.

The Hoover boy is a son of Albert Hoover, of the Chillicothe Pike and has been an inmate of the home for four years.

Boy's Mother Is Frank

Ed Covert, the youngest of the trio, is a son by a former marriage of Mrs. Myrtle Murphy, of Earlstown and had been in the home only since April. She was formerly employed in a shoe factory and last week worked as a domestic at the East End hotel. She has been almost distracted ever since learning that her boy ran away from the home.

All efforts to find the trousers and shoes of the boys were futile. The caps and the color of the hair of the three who disappeared from the home. Some persons advanced the theory that the boys may have been floating about the backwaters on a log when it turned with them.

All three boys attended the Highland school. Timberlake was a fifth grade pupil and the other two belonged in the third grade.

Identified

Miss Hamor appeared at the Dice morgue at 2:30 p. m. in company with James Henry Williams, a boy inmate, and they identified the three caps as those of the missing lads and when given a description of the three blue waists, gathered on belts, felt convinced that the bodies were those of the boy inmates. The bodies were not presentable and relatives will perhaps be denied the privilege of viewing them.

W. C. Silcox, a trustee of the institution, also called at the undertaking establishment and made all arrangements for burying the bodies the board to assume the expenses. The bodies of the Hoover and Covert boys will be buried in the county children's home lot in Greenlawn cemetery Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. Services will be held at the grave. In deference to the wishes of relatives the remains of the Timberlake boy will be laid to rest beside those of his late mother at St. Louis, Ky.

A grape basket was found near where the dead bodies were found.

HIGH YALLER IS STILL FREE; WORK ON CLUES

William Jones, alias "Jungle Shine" and Joseph Smith, alias "Florida Kid," the two informers in the Baues murder case, met Tuesday morning for the first time since they were imprisoned. "Florida Kid" has spent the past two weeks in the female ward of the city prison and Chief

W. T. McCarty decided that he was entitled to a little exercise, so allowed him the freedom of the main cell room down stairs. Jones was rather slow in greeting him but once they exchanged words they backed up against the stove and were soon engaged in earnest conversation. Both have written quite a number of letters the past few days to relatives urging them to co-operate with officers in trying to locate Henry Glenn, alias "High Yaller," the alleged gunman in the case. One of the latest reports received was that "High Yaller" had spent two days of last week working on a C. & O. bridge just below Vanceburg, Ky.

Fear Man Who Fled From Hospital May Be Lying In Helpless State In "Bottoms"

Andy Verego, the foreigner, who while crazed by typhoid fever, escaped from Hempstead hospital and only in a night gown during the heavy fog early Monday morning, is still missing.

Not the slightest trace has been found of the unfortunate man who it is feared in his disordered state of mind may have taken his own life by drowning himself in the Scioto river. Others believe that he may in his weakened condition dropped from sheer exhaustion and is probably lying in a helpless state if not dead in the underbrush along the railroad tracks or somewhere in the Scioto bottoms.

Police officers searched for him up to noon Monday while Marshal W. L. Davis, of New Boston, searched the Hungarian camp at the steel plant thinking perhaps he might return there.

At the hospital it is stated that Verego's temperature was only 100 and that he was not delirious which causes the belief among some that he may have suddenly become unbalanced mentally. He was regarded as a very good patient. He is said to be about 30 years of age and can speak but little English.

Washington, June 8.—The old sloop of war Portsmouth, which took possession of San Francisco Bay for the United States in 1864, destroyed the Chinese fortifications at Canton in 1856 and later fought with Admiral Farragut, was sold today for $3,602 to John H. Gregory, of Perth Amboy, N. J. The staunch old ship lies sunk at her berth in the Norfolk navy yard, and is good only for the material in her hull. Since the Civil War she has been used as a training ship.

Democrats Busy On Candidates For The City Ticket

Some friends and supporters of Mayor Adam Frick have been active the past few days towards placing a full Democratic ticket in the field for the August primaries.

They have succeeded in bringing out the following candidates: Adam Frick for mayor; William E. Cook, vice mayor; George Gableman, city auditor; Philip M. Jacobs, city solicitor; Adam Pfun and Jasper Newman, councilmen-at-large; Frank Schmauck, councilman First ward; Henry P. Uhl, councilman, Second ward; Edward Westphal, councilman, Third ward; Jacob Hobstetter, councilman, Fourth ward. Persons under consideration for city treasurer and a third councilman-at-large are expected to give their final answers Wednesday.

The only contest thus far openly developed among the Democrats is that for justice of the peace. The candidates already announced are: Fred Baesman, Lou Seiling and "Happy" Baesman. P. W. Kilecyne is said to be considering entering the race. Two are to be elected.

Minor E. Cartwright, an employee of the Portsmouth Veneer & Panel company, and who for years drove John F. Newman's feed wagon, is a candidate for constable.

GERMAN NOTE READY; WAIT MEXICAN REPLY

CAPITAL OFFICIALS ANXIOUS AS CRISIS NEARS WITH TWO WARRING COUNTRIES

Washington, June 8.—United States government officials today viewed with keen interest efforts of Gen. Francisco Villa to meet Gen. Venustiano Carranza in conference to consider President Wilson's recent communication demanding a settlement of Mexican affairs. This move on the part of the northern leader, which his secretary announced last night, Villa was ready to make, was considered by officials the most important Mexican development since President Wilson's statement.

Confidential advisers received here said that Villa had decided pending a conference to propose a peace pact in the southern republic. Carranza's troops, however, according to Villa's secretary, attacked when Villa ordered a retirement in keeping with this suggestion. Colonel Enriquez Pizarro, secretary to Villa, is quoted as saying that he had been ordered from Chihuahua to Aguas Calientes to frame the note to Carranza and the reply his chief would send to President Wilson.

The action of Villa is the first step of an official nature yet taken by the leaders with a view to composing Mexico's domestic troubles since the president's winning. They are watching the latest turn with renewed hope of ultimate restoration of peace in the southern republic.

"I've Five Bullets, Four For The Germans And One For Myself;" He Used Them

Paris, June 8.—The fate of Alhieric Magnard, the composer of "Berenice" and "Yslande," missing since the battle of the Marne has just become known. He was at his country home near the village of Baron in the Oise, working on a new opera when the Germans invaded the department.

"There are five bullets there," he had said to a friend a few days before the arrival of the enemy, showing an automatic pistol. "Four for the Germans if they break into my premises—the fifth for myself."

The morning when the Uhlans were in the vicinity Magnard barricaded the gates to the park and the entrances to his house, where he had retired alone with his son-in-law, Monsieur Creton. A detachment of 30 Uhlans came soon after, demolishing the gates, invaded the grounds and began to force the doors. Magnard rushed to a window and fired two shots. Two Uhlans fell and the rest fled.

Later the detachment of Uhlans returned to the park, and fearing that the occupants of the house were well armed, decided to burn the composer out.

Doors, gates, branches of trees were piled in the entry, sprinkled with oil and fired.

Immediately two more shots came through the blinds and two more Uhlans fell. Then the blind was thrown open, the composer appeared in the open window, crying in a ringing voice: "Vive la France." Then he deliberately put the pistol to his temple and killed himself.

SUBMARINES KEEP UP DEADLY WORK

London, June 8.—(12:15 p.m.)—The Norwegian vessels Trudvang and Superb have been sunk by German submarines.

Another Norwegian steamer sunk is the Glittertind, of 370 tons net. This vessel was built in 1913 and was 186 feet long.

The Trudvang was a steamer of 640 tons net register. She was built at Bergen in 1897. She was 224 feet long, 32 feet beam and 13 feet deep.

The Superb was a bark of 1,393 tons and was built in Glasgow in 1876. She sailed from Buenos Ayres March 10 for Queenstown.

London, June 8.—The Belgium steamer Mematier has been sent to the bottom by a German torpedo near the North Foreland. Out of 23 persons on board only six were saved. The captain, his wife and his daughter, the first mate and the pilot and twelve members of the crew lost their lives.

TYPHOID RAGES IN TURKEY

London, June 8.—9:31 a.m.—An epidemic of typhoid fever is raging among the troops and civilian population of Asia minor, according to reports from Constantinople, says a Reuters dispatch from Athens.

Seventy-five physicians have already succumbed to the disease.

There is imminent danger that the Constantinople water works system will be compelled to suspend operations because of shortage of coal and output of flour mills has been restricted for the same reason, with the result that there is an insufficient supply of bread. The situation is said to be so serious that many German families are leaving the Turkish capital.

TEXAS RANGER IS KILLED BY MEXICAN

Marathon, Texas, June 8.—Lee Burdette, a Texas Ranger, was shot and killed near Fabens, Texas, last night in a pistol battle with three Mexicans, two of whom he seriously wounded. Both the wounded Mexicans are expected to die. The third was being pursued by a posse today. Burdette whose home was in Austin, was trying to arrest the men.

GREEK KING WORSE

Rome, June 8.—(Via Paris 2:15 p.m.)—The Messenger has received a news dispatch from Athens saying the condition of King Constantine of Greece has suddenly become very grave.

Italy Claims Troops Have Important Towns

Rome, June 8.—(Via Paris)—Italian troops are proceeding methodically to take possession of the most important positions all along the frontier, according to a statement signed by General Cadorna, chief of the general staff, issued last night at general Italian headquarters. The statement follows: "Our advanced troops proceeded to take possession of the most important positions beyond the frontier all along the line, meeting with some resistance. At the same time a contested artillery duel continued on the plateau of Lavarouna."

"The sunn is the cause along the Isouze river from Casaretto to the sea where we are in close contact with the enemy. Strong advance formation protected by powerful artillery actually have reached this important line with the object of establishing themselves solidly at the most suitable passages and of installing their bridge heads commanding the banks, thereby insuring safe crossing."

NEWSPAPER IS SEIZED BY GOVERNMENT

Paris, June 8.—11 a.m.—The government has ordered the seizure of the newspaper La Guerre Sociale edited by Gustave Hervé, owing to an article not approved by the censor, in which he violently attacked the conduct of the war.

ADMIRAL OF FRENCH NAVY IS DEAD

Paris, June 8.—Admiral Abrial, chief of the general staff of the French navy, died last night at the Val de Grace hospital after an illness which had lasted several weeks. He formerly was commander of the fleet at Toulon.

WOMEN TO HEAR REPORT

New York, June 8.—Addresses by fraternal delegates representing trade union organizations of New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Kansas City and other cities occupied the time of this, the second day's session of the National convention of the National Woman's Trade Union League of America.

Miss Leonora O'Reilly, who was a delegate to the Woman's International Peace Conference at The Hague, was to appear before the convention today and report on her mission to Europe.

EIGHTY SALOONS IN MINNESOTA TO CLOSE

St. Paul, Minn., June 8.—Eighty saloons in ten counties of Minnesota will be forced to discontinue operations as a result of yesterday's county option election.

Two of the twelve counties voting, Blue Earth and Olmstead, will retain saloons. In Pipestone the drys won by 13 votes and in Redwood by 32. The other counties which abolished liquor are Traverse, Todd, Hennepin, Dodge, Kandiyohi, Murray, Ottertail and Watonwan.

Relief Ship To Go Into Arctic Regions

New York, June 8.—The steamer Chieft which leaves here today carrying supplies for the Greiffel mission in Labrador will later proceed to Etah, Greenland, as a relief ship for the Donald B. McMillan expedition which went to the Arctic regions in search of Crocker land. Mr. McMillan has reported that the supposed new land in the far north does not exist.

After unloading at the Greiffel mission in Labrador the Chieft will return to North Sydney, B. C., where Dr. E. O. Hively, chairman of the committee which sent the McMillan expedition north, expects to go on board and start for Etah about August 1. It is expected that the members of the exploring party will be recalled and return home on board the Chieft.

WILL MAKE FOURTH PEACE CELEBRATION

Toledo, June 8.—City council last night, by unanimous vote, passed a resolution calling upon Mayor Kolker to issue a proclamation making the celebration this year for Fourth of July one symbolic of peace. The resolution directs the mayor to issue a proclamation to the citizens of Toledo designating the Fourth of July as a day for the celebration of the peace this country now enjoys; and that a committee be appointed to work in conjunction with the mayor to arrange a suitable celebration. The board of education, Toledo minister's union, the Loyal

SAYS GERMANY WILL EXTEND BEYOND BORDER

Amsterdam, (Via London) June 8.—Extension of the German empire beyond the old frontiers to secure it against future attacks, was predicted by King Ludwig, of Bavaria, yesterday before the Caudine League, according to a telegram from Munich. His Majesty said in his address:

"When the English declared war I said 'I am glad because now we can settle accounts with our enemies; now, at least, we may hope to get more favorable communication with the sea and South Germany.'"

"Ten months have elapsed and much precious blood has been shed, but it will not have been in vain. The fruits of the war will be the strengthening of the empire with extension beyond the old frontiers as far as is necessary to secure it from future attack."

BURTON IS RECEIVED BY GOMEZ

Rio Janeiro, June 8.—President Gomez yesterday received former United States Senator Burton, of Ohio, who is making a tour of South America for the purpose of strengthening commercial relations between the United States and the southern republics.

Edwin V. Morgan, United States ambassador to Brazil, also was present at the interview. There was a cordial discussion of the possibility of closer trade relations.

REUTER A PRIVATE

London, June 8.—The new Baron de Reuter is a private in Kitchener's army. He has the title because by permission of Queen Victoria his grandfather was granted the right to it though conferred in Germany.

"To The Front For Yours," Judge To Wife Stabber

London, June 8.—When you get to the front I hope you will exercise your stabbing abilities upon those who better deserve it," Justice Darling in the Old Bailey court several days ago told Gunner Ayres, twenty-one years in the army.

Ayres pleaded guilty to striking his wife three times with a knife at Hammersmith. His battery is at Tidsworth. He said his act was caused by jealousy.

The court gave Ayres six months and said he would arrange to have him transferred to a battery arriving immediately to the front.

WE ARE UNITED.

Wonderful country this. On the same day the veterans of the stars and stripes were celebrating their Memorial Day the veterans of the stars and bars were assembling at Richmond, the old capital of the Confederacy, in annual reunion, and peacefully, pleasantly, the country went on its way. Nor does that all mark the re-uniting of the sections. The United States Marine Band lead the veterans' procession at Richmond and amid tremendous enthusiasm the official session passed resolutions commending President Wilson for his firm stand for neutrality and his evident purpose to protect the rights of this nation and the lives of its citizens. Especially did it approve him for his efforts to preserve peace with honor and assured him "the old boys in gray" would be ready to march again at his call.

BOTH PLEASURE AND REGRET.

The Huntington Herald-Dispatch seems to be that proud that The Times should commend its county of Cabell in voting a big bond issue to build more good roads.

Good roads are the best acquirement for which a county can spend its resources. The Times thinks Cabell is particularly wise in buying a bonded debt upon itself to this end because it can be certain that in all human probability it will get what it pays for—good roads and full worth for its money. She is not entering upon an experiment with an expectation, she is but carrying out a policy on which she has already handsomely realized. She had the good judgment to enter some years ago upon the construction of vitrified brick roads and she already has over forty miles that are as fine as can be found anywhere on earth. For unlike Scioto county when she voted a tax for brick roads she went squarely to building them instead of frittering the money away in the back townships and most of the brick out of which the roads are built was made right here at Portsmouth. We do not exactly envy her what she has and is achieving, we are just regretful that having equal resources and being in a position to build more permanent roads than she, Scioto county has built only a mileage that is contemptible by comparison with all the conditions.

THE CHILD ITSELF.

A child, the other day, asked its father what was the nicest thing in the world. His father, deeply puzzled, played for time and put the question in a newspaper, in order that he might get the best answer. Now philosophers and fools are offering their suggestions for reply.

Many and varied as individuals themselves are these, but strange, that none offer that which is most obvious, the child itself, a child untainted and unseared by sin and sorrow, a child in whose face there is the undimmed glow of innocence and purity, in whose laugh there is no refrain of disappointment and hope unfulfilled, in whose heart there is the untainted love that instinctively knows those who love it and will do it no harm.

And it is an unfortunate child that has a father lacking in the wit to say this to him.

AN APPRECIATION OF SUNDAY.

Yesterday was the bloom of youth. The air was as tranquil as the fragrance of a rose and the blue skies as gentle as the smile of a girl. Old Probs had taken on new resolutions and summoned all the forces of joy to guard the day. There is a touch of religion in such a lovely day, for the churches were crowded and the sermons were full of the sweetness of the year. There is a moral influence in a beautiful day. It makes a person suave and mild, and he talks to his neighbor in tones as soft as a robin's song. If we could have such days as yesterday none of us could be wicked. Every flower would preach a sermon, every bird would sing an anthem and through the branches of the trees the spirit of the living God would make moving pictures on the blue sky. All one has to do is to open up his heart and feel it all. Old Probs ought to be ashamed of himself if he does not continue the charm today and tomorrow.—From Monday's Ohio State Journal.

A man who walked over Dan "Egbert's" temporary roadway around the Chillicothe pike paving says that he thinks it was built to give work to unemployed air ships instead of unemployed horses as we suggested. He is willing to submit to arbitration as between his think and ours.

HIS EXCELLENCY THE C. P. OF OHIO

DEATH PENALTY FOR THIS EDITOR.

(Enderlin, N. D. Independent.)

Born—on April 24, to Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Skramstad, residing near Nome, a fine baby boy. When this matter is brought to their attention in the right light they will willingly stop the practice.

Up at Ashland, Ky., Editor Ben Fargoy of the Independent, has evidently been connecting up with a government mint. He announces that he is going to give away a five passenger automobile, pianos, victrolas, diamonds, sewing machines, watches, bicycles, and other prizes to those who assist him in getting One Thousand and new subscribers. Knowing the abstemious and rectitudinous habits of Brother Fargoy we make haste to insure worldly inclined persons that it would do them no good to take a new subscriber into Ben's amuletum and claim a drink of the stuff that cheers but inebriates as one of the "other prizes."

Having retired to the rear ranks of the high privates, we find time for pure and unalloyed enjoyment of these beautiful June days and our thoughts are not disturbed by little things like worries about whether or not this or that man will respond to the insistent call of the people and allow his honored name to decorate the party ticket at the coming city election. And, following the custom of the past, we suppose we will be entitled to roar with the rest of the high privates at the iniquitous party bosses for doing their best to put a presentable ticket in the field.

We note that while Governor Willis vetoed an item for $5,000 for certain repairs at the Gallipoli institution for epileptics, he thoughtfully signed the appropriation of $1,500 for his dear friend, Charlie Galbraith for extra work as clerk of the late constitutional convention. This little gratuity had been denied Charlie by the preceding legislature after careful investigation. But then why should the wards of the state be considered when a friend and admirer like Galbraith is to be considered?

There is nothing like being popular. We have heard of two states of prospective office holders planned by two candidates for the Republican nomination for mayor and each one of them is headed by Roy McElhiney for service director. Now if Mau would only get on the slates of the other two candidates he might consider himself fairly well fortified to qualify as a member in the lead pipe czech brigade, in the event of Republican success.

There has been a general perking up and wearing of the "I am the Man" smile among the handist chieftains south of the Rio Grande ever since President Wilson sent the message for them to agree upon one of their number as the savior of Mexico. Each of these fellows seems to be immensely popular with himself whenever the presidency is mentioned.

Another indication that the tension in our foreign relations is lessening is found in the fact that Col. Roosevelt has taken a few days off to enjoy a hunt in the state game preserves of Louisiana. Of course if there was any real danger our perpetual and persistent national adviser upon all things under the sun, inside the sun, and over it too, would be on the job.

The sapient counsellors of the nation are still pointing a moral over the case of the Terrell Hunter murder. That is all right, but the Hooosier official becomes altogether black because he was legally found out. Our horror of evil is rooted rather on conviction for it, than aversion to commission of it.

Huntington jitney buses must take out a city license and put up a surety bond for $5,000 for liability in case of accidents before they can operate in the corporate limits. There have been so many accidents in and about Huntington traceable to the Jitneys that drastic action had to be taken.

One of the things our able young newshoys cannot understand is why the good Lord allows the weather man to fool and bluff around all afternoon and then send rain down in torrents just at press time.

Bulletin: The strawberry army has about reached the climax of its successful campaign. It is expected to remain stationary for a few days, then conduct a masterly retreat to its own country to prepare for a fresh campaign next year.

A Washington authority says sparrows can be killed with Roman candles. Making July Fourth sparrow day is one way we might have an old time Fourth.—Youngstown Telegram.

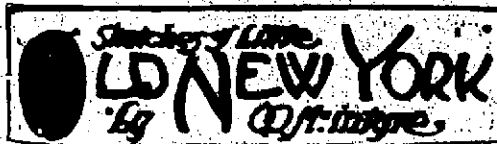

Wonder who Mr. Taft had in mind when he said we would be at war now if Mr. Wilson's place in the White House were filled by a jingo?—Philadelphia Record.

There always appears to be more Russians bobbing up to be captured. They must hear in some way of what an excellent commissary the Tentous maintain.

One of the things we cannot understand is why it is that it is considered necessary to take all summer and most of the fall to complete a little jag of paving along a country road when the same amount is usually done in half the time inside the city limits.

Writing in the Ashland Independent, Miss Ina Moore says there are more than a million kinds of insects. Howdy know, Ina, howdy know?

We suppose it is getting so over in England that life would be dull and empty if it were not for a daily Zeppelin raid.

New York, June 8.—The Tango Parasites, those sleek, oily tongued young devils of the trotteries, are giving the Wide White Alley the go-by just now. They have taken their wrist watches, their pomade and suede tops to quiet little hotels on the Jersey coast until the storm blows over.

All sorts of committees are investigating Broadway and why girls go wrong. The same hysteria that follows every public expose is rampant and until the probers tire themselves out the tango halls will be minus the night loafers who live off of women.

The tango halls have for a year been a boon to the dress suit gangsters. Driven off the East Side by the Rosenthal murder investigations they have swarmed into the uptown section of Broadway. They are suave, gentle mannered and diplomatic. They know how to involve wealthy girls and married women into hopeless traps—and their profit by the blackmail.

The "Mr. O'Reilly" song has been cleared up. It seems that the song being sung in the trenches by the allied soldiers under the title "Are You the O'Reilly?" is none other than the melody of the old "Mr. Riley" song that Pat Roney popularized years ago, but the soldiers have put a new lyric to it.

A New York music publisher, with a gift for picking up winners, saw at once the melody was infectious and likely to have the same sweep as Tipperary. He secured the American rights and immediately put it on sale. Those who recall Pat Roney always identify him with his "Mr. Riley" song.

At Amsterdam Avenue and 162nd street you may buy, if you are that kind of a person, "Suggestive Gifts for June Brides."

An enterprising vaudeville

manager tried to get Charles Chaplin to leave California for ten days to appear in New York. He was to get $25,000 and expenses so the story goes—and pros agents will make it a dollar or so too much now and then.

At any rate the funny film star wouldn't make the jump and it is said that after he had turned the offer down the company that hires him gave him a check for $25,000.

The story may be true because he would pack any vaudeville house twice daily for ten days. The musical shows are stealing his stuff now. There are Charlie Chaplin choruses with Charlie Chaplin walks until the tired business man—the poor old dear—is surfeited.

There's a bright, snappy lesson in modern architecture from a headline in the Herald. It reads: "Newark to be Hub of Gateway to America." By the way, one wonders if salesmen who sell hubs for gates were affected by the war.

The "By The Sea" resorts are opening up just now. There are the Castles by the Sea, the Cliffs by the Sea, the Manly by the Sea and innumerable others. They are considered quite stumpy by the crowds who breakfast at four o'clock in the afternoon and have nothing to do but lap up cocktails and maxixe their way through life.

A man went into a restaurant on upper Broadway the other day, ordered chicken and refused to eat it on the plea that it was unfit. The proprietor called a cop who took the diner to the nearest station. The judge dismissed the case and if a few more independent diners would like the same stand New York and its visitors would have more palatable food.

For some inexplicable reason it infuriates restaurant men to have food sent back. The more timid diners will allow them to get away with anything they serve rather than have a scene, but now and then a lion hearted citizen makes it easier for others by asserting himself.

Marker Is Moved

The city has called Civil Engineer W. H. W. Jenkins' attention to the geodetic marker located at Ninth and Court streets having been removed and reset by a property owner there a few days ago and that this removal has likely entirely changed the accuracy of this station and should be noted before instruments are set by this station.

Fear Man Who Fled From Hospital May Be Lying In Helpless State In "Bottoms"

Andy Verego, the foreigner who while crazed by typhoid fever, escaped from Hempstead hospital and only in a night gown during the heavy fog early Monday morning, is still missing. He had been a patient at the hospital about three weeks.

Not the slightest trace has been found of the unfortunate man who it is feared in his disordered state of mind may have taken his own life by drowning himself in the Scioto river. Others believe that he may in his weakened condition dropped from sheer exhaustion and is probably lying in a helpless state if not dead in the underbrush along the railroad tracks or somewhere in the Scioto bottoms.

Police officers searched for him up to noon Monday while Marshal W. J. Davis, of New Boston, searched the Hungarian camp at the steel plant thinking perhaps he might return there.

At the hospital it is stated that Verego's temperature was only 100 and that he was not delirious which causes the belief among some that he may have suddenly become unbalanced mentally. He was regarded as a very good patient. He is said to be about 30 years of age and can speak but little English.

Surprise For Circle

All members of River City Grove No. 191, are requested to attend the meeting tonight. A very enjoyable surprise will follow the routine business.

OBITUARY

Miss Lucy Knowles
Miss Lucy Knowles, one of the city's most highly esteemed residents, a woman who was widely endeared for her many favorable traits of character, passed peacefully away Monday afternoon at the family residence, 1016 Second street. She had been ill with complications since last September, but her condition did not become serious until a short time ago.

Miss Knowles was a daughter of the late William and Mary Knowles, who passed away about two years ago. She is survived by two sisters, the Misses Sallie and Laura Knowles and four brothers, P. W. and J. K. of the Whitaker-Glessner Co. and Attorney Reht. B. Knowles and Dr. Ralph Knowles of New York, who are on their way to Portsmouth to attend the last sad rites of their sister.

Miss Knowles was a life long member of the First Presbyterian church and was a most estimable woman. She had the happy faculty of bringing sunshine to the hearts of those around her and was always kind and sympathetic. She has passed away, but the deeds of kindness she so graciously performed will linger long in the memories of those who knew her best and loved her most.

Miss Knowles for years taught the young men's Sunday school class of the First Presbyterian church and much of her life was given to various forms of church work. She was the happiest when working for her church, which she loved so dearly.

The funeral services will be conducted from the home Thursday morning at 10 o'clock, the Rev. J. W. Dunning officiating. Friends are invited to the services, but the burial rites in Oregon will be private.

Negro Coke Victim Tears Off Clothing

Thomas Fisher, the strange negro arrested Monday afternoon for frightening women in various parts of the city, was completely bereft of his reason the instant he was locked up in a cell.

Fisher began running around the cell, shouting wildly, and kept it up for several hours, or until he was almost completely exhausted. He had torn all of his clothes off by morning and stood in his cell staring into space. When taken into custody he imagined he was in Norfolk, Va., which he said was his birthplace and home. The police believe the man is deranged from excessive use of cocaine. He will be turned over to the probate court.

PICNIC THIS EVENING

The Senior Christian Endeavor of the First Christian church will picnic at Peabees Grove at the head of Oakland avenue, this (Tuesday) evening, after working hours, instead of Thursday evening, as was announced yesterday. You are most cordially invited to participate. Bring a box and come along.

Little New In The Plumbers' Rumpus

Nothing new has developed in the past few days in the controversy between the employers and the Building Trades' Council, both sides awaiting the arrival Friday of Judge W. P. Stephenson, who will assign the case for hearing at an early date.

Harry Strong, business agent of the Council, wired the chief counsel for the defendants, Nicholas Klein, to come Wednesday noon for a conference with his clients, and his arrival is expected at that time.

The twelve local firms, plaintiffs, are seeking to permanently dissolve the Building Trades Council as an organization, on the ground that it is illegal, and are also seeking to enjoin permanently the members from alleged interfering with the business of the plaintiffs.

FRICK PETITIONS ON THE STREET

All doubt as to Mayor Frick becoming a candidate for re-election as mayor, on the Democratic ticket was removed when his petitions were put into circulation Tuesday morning. Petitions were also circulated for William E. Cool for vice mayor although he has not yet given his final answer due to the critical illness of Mrs. Cook which will probably preclude him making a personal campaign. He, however, is expected to consent to the use of his name.

8th Grade Pupils Graduate Tonight

Certificates of promotion will be issued this evening at the high school auditorium to one hundred and thirty-three pupils of the eighth grades of the various elementary school buildings, whose work has entitled them to promotion to the high school. Suitable exercises will mark the occasion, which is one of the big features of commencement week.

Eighth grade commencement is a new departure in Portsmouth, but the inductions are that it will be made a permanent feature of commencement week hereafter.

The program for the evening follows:

Invocation—Rev. W. T. Gilliland.

Song, "Long Live America"—Pontius—Eighth Grade Pupils.

Address—Rev. John Wirt Dunning.

Song, "Breathe Soft, Ye Winds"—Pontius—Eighth Grade Pupils.

Remarks by Prof. Frank Appel, superintendent of schools.

Presentation of certificates of promotion—Mrs. Pauline McKeown, principal of Union street building.

Hallelujah Chorus—Hallelujah Chorus—Hallelujah Chorus—Hallelujah Chorus.

Benediction.

Shopped Here

J. D. Lowder, J. D. Harsely, Fred H. Smith, John Tooley, George Royal and Mrs. R. B. Anderson were among Quincy, Ky., persons in the city shopping Saturday.

FIND BODY IN RIVER

The body of a boy about 12 years old was found in the Scioto river opposite the chemical plant this morning by Officer Osborn.

Osborn was looking for the foreigner who disappeared from Hempstead hospital.

CAR SIDESWIPES HOODOO COTTAGE

The hoodoo which has puzzled the cottage which Charles Bell moved off the new county bridge site seems to be still hovering over it.

On Saturday night a wide car of a passing B. & O. S. W. freight train side-wiped the cottage, at Ninth and Court streets, tearing out one whole corner. Mr. Bell expects to locate it on a lot there. He is within fifty feet of his destination, but is finding it difficult getting through the narrow space that forms the approach. Delays encountered at the start caused him to incur the ill-will of Second street residents, then followed an injunction by the street railway and still further delay and once that was settled his property suffered a bad breakdown in rounding the corner of Second and Madison streets, and next he had to run the gauntlet of irate women of Third street for alleged damaging their shade trees.

OWL CARNIVAL

Allen Castater, a local member of the Owls, while on a visit to Parkersburg, W. Va., last week saw the Sheesley Greater Shows which will hold forth on the old mill lot one week in August under the auspices of the Owls. Mr. Castater advised the local nest at their regular meeting Monday evening that the carnival company was bigger and better than ever this season.

Roy McManey of the local nest will go to South Bend this week to attend a meeting of the Second Degree members. He may be elected to the Third degree while there.

ARE YOU'RE TAXES PAID? TIME IS GETTING SHORT

Monday witnessed a rush of taxpayers to the county treasurer's office to pay their June taxes, and Treasurer M. J. Caldwell and his deputy, Gilbert Dodds, were kept on the go all day. The time is now getting short in which to pay taxes.

ENJOYS LIFE IN OREGON

J. D. Cronston, who is located at Roseburg, Oregon, writes friends that he is well pleased with his surroundings there and that the weather has been fine. He says the climate is fine, there being no extremes in the heat. "There will be an abundance of fruit and vegetables and we have just closed a successful Strawberry Carnival," writes Mr. Cronston.

Visit New Railway

Many sight-seers Sunday visited the scene of the extensive grading being done for the C. & O. Northern Railway back of Sciotoville.

One of the big cuts is 35 feet deep and two steam shovels and six "dinky" engines are now engaged on the work which is being pushed with all possible haste by Contractor Reinhardt.

At. K. of P. Convention

Vernon McFarland, of Mineral Springs, was in the city Monday enroute to Zanesville, where he will represent the Mineral Springs K. of P. lodge at the Knights of Pythias State Convention.

Visiting Here

Mrs. W. A. Holmes came up from Quincy, Ky., Saturday for a few days' visit to her husband; a well known Second street merchant.

Helping Out

Barber Albert J. Servey is helping out in the week-end rushes at Jack Hager's Bigas House shop.

HIGH YALLER IS STILL FREE; WORK ON CLUES

William Jones, alias "Jungle Shine" and Joseph Smith, alias "Florida Kid," the two informers in the Bauman murder case, met Tuesday morning for the first time since they were imprisoned. "Florida Kid" has spent the past two weeks in the female ward of the city prison and Chief W. T. McCarty decided that he was entitled to a little exercise, so allowed him the freedom of the main cell room down stairs. Jones was rather slow in greeting him but once they exchanged words they backed up against the stove and were soon engaged in earnest conversation. Both have written quite a number of letters the past few days to relatives urging them to co-operate with officers in trying to locate Henry Glenn, alias "High Yaller," the alleged gunman in the case. One of the latest reports received was that "High Yaller" had spent two days of last week working on a C. & O. bridge just below Vanceburg, Ky.

BOB CALVERT BADLY HURT AT HOUMA, LA.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Calvert, former residents of this city, now living at Houma, La., will regret to learn that Mr. Calvert suffered a serious accident last Friday, resulting in his collar-bone being broken, in addition to other injuries.

Mrs. Calvert, in letters to friends, says Mr. Calvert had been painting a big three-ton traction engine, he owns, and had the back wheels raised about eight inches higher than the front ones. He was standing in front of the car adjusting the jack under the front, when the jack slipped and the machine gave a jump off the blocks in the rear.

"It caught him," says Mrs. Calvert, "between the square axle and a tool box that happened to be behind him. His face was against the axle and his shoulder against the box."

His collar-bone was broken, also his nose; a tooth was knocked out and a gash inflicted from the side of his nose down through to his chin, requiring several stitches to close. He also had a cut on his chest, and his shoulders were very badly bruised.

Mrs. Calvert and son, William, managed to get Mr. Calvert free before any others arrived, they hearing his groans. A crowd soon collected and a doctor reached, the scene in five minutes. The broken bones were set, and Mr. Calvert is now getting along as well as could be expected.

GUN VICTIM BETTER

The condition of William Ehrhardt, victim of the shooting near Star Yards on Decoration Day, is showing marked improvement during the past two days. He has recovered slight use of his left limb, which, with his right, had been paralyzed ever since the shooting. Loss of a week ago his recovery was considered improbable, but it is now thought that he will live, though permanently crippled. He is a patient at the Hempstead hospital and is being attended by the city physician, Dr. C. W. Wendelken.

Buys Milk Business

Mrs. A. Horvoly has bought out the milk business of Tom Stevens, at Mill and Sinton streets. The latter is preparing to leave the state because of his recent troubles. His young daughter was committed to the county children's home Monday.

Mr. Janetsky Moves

L. J. Janetsky has moved from Third street to the Joseph G. Reed property on Front street, near Chillicothe.

THIRTY-THREE YEARS AGO TODAY J. F. MENKE CAME TO THIS CITY TO EMBARK IN GROCERY BUSINESS

Thirty-three years ago Tuesday there came to Portsmouth to make his start in the business world a young man who today enjoys the distinction of being the city's oldest grocer in point of service, namely John Frederick Menke.

Mr. Menke came to the city from near Powellsville, and on June 8, 1882, bought out his brother-in-law, John Ames, at Gay and Eleventh streets. He paid $150 for the fixtures and had $50 left with which to buy a stock of groceries. During the summer of 1883 he bought a lot and built a combination store and residence building at Eleventh and Euclid streets and occupied it November 8, 1883. He was there during the big flood of 1884. There was six feet of water in the store room. In January, 1895, he formed a partnership with George J. Schmidt and started the Central grocery in the Kricker building on Euclid street. They dissolved partnership in 1903, Mr. Menke going to the corner of Eighth and Chillicothe streets. On July 1, 1905, he moved to the Hill-top and has since remained in his present location, the southwest corner of Grant street and Hutchins avenue. Seven of his clerks during that period have since become grocers themselves. "Mandy," the boy name, which he faithfully served his owner in delivering groceries for 24 years, is still in active service and seemingly as spry as ever. He is 39 years of age and Mr. Menke regards her as one of the best partners he ever had.

When Mr. Menke moved to the Hill-top he did so against the advice of many of his friends and associates. G. H. Henslich particularly ridiculing the idea of his going out into the "woods," as he termed it. There were at that time only a dozen houses in the entire Hill-top district, which today forms one of the city's best and most desirable residence sections. There are now nine groceries in that district. R. O. Deady was the first to establish a grocery there and Mr. Menke followed. Today he enjoys an excellent patronage and he is there to stay.

Mr. Menke prides himself upon one thing, and that is, that he never sold on Sundays during his 33 years in business, with one single exception, and that was one one Sunday during the 1913 flood. He recalls with much pleasure that one day he refused one of his best customers a can of peaches which she wanted to buy on Sunday, after unexpectedly receiving company. He expected her to quit, but a few days later, to his great surprise, she called around and assured him that she thought more of him than ever. This all goes to bear out the fact that a grocer does not have to sell on Sundays, says Mr. Menke.

It has been rightly said of Mr. Menke that if there is any one trait in his character more prominent than another, it is his earnestness. He is earnest in everything he does. He is conscientious to a remarkable degree and lives strictly according to the dictates of his conscience. He has made an admirable success in business and is esteemed by all who know him. He and family have a cozy and well-kept home at Seventeenth street and Hutchins avenue and were awarded a premium last year for the most beautiful lawn on Hutchins avenue.

Mr. Menke is 56 years of age. He was born in Hanover, Germany, the son of Henry Menke, a farmer, who is still living in Giles county, Nebraska, at the ripe old age of 81 years. His mother, Mrs. Emma Nicholas-Menke, died when he was seven years old. He was only 3 months old when his parents started for this country and six months old when they landed in Baltimore, having been on the ocean for 11 weeks and 3 days. He was reared in Scioto county, and began teaching when he was eighteen years of age and taught until he was twenty-three.

Horse Injured

Dr. P. J. Kline's driving mare got its foot caught in the street car track and was thrown heavily to the street near the First National Bank corner Monday morning, breaking the shafts of the buggy and injuring a hind leg of the horse.

Visiting Here

Harry Sheets, sheriff of Pickaway county, and family are visiting his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Tatman, of Second street.
